

Contents

List of illustrations	x
List of contributors	xi
Acknowledgements	xvi

Introduction: unsustainable institutions of men: Transnational dispersed centres and immanent contradictions	1
JEFF HEARN, MARINA HUGHSON AND ERNESTO VASQUEZ DEL AGUILA

PART I

Economy

1 Interrogating transnational masculinities, fatherhood and the institutions of men: Rethinking gender equality in global finance and large international law firms	25
HELEN LONGLANDS AND RICHARD COLLIER
2 The innovation ecosystem: Interrogating (trans)national gender (un)sustainability in the new business centre	41
RICHARD HOWSON AND GREG KERR
3 Transnational football's male elite: The unsustainability of FIFA?	55
JOHN HUGHSON AND MARINA HUGHSON
4 Hegemony self-critique: How men in finance question aspects of masculine and economic hegemony from within	71
ANIKA THYM

PART II

Politics

- 5 The ends of imagination: Hindu nationalism, masculine networks and political transformation 87
PREM KUMAR (PK) VIJAYAN
- 6 Intentional impossibility: Sustainable transnational (male)
clientelism versus an unsustainable environment 104
MARINA HUGHSON
- 7 Contradictory consciousness: Men and feminist activism in the Caribbean 119
TONYA HAYNES

PART III

Technologies

- 8 Men, automobility, movements, and the environment: Imagining
(un)sustainable, automated transport futures 139
DAG BALKMAR AND JEFF HEARN
- 9 'The performing rights of man': The global music industries and transnational hegemonies of men 155
SAM DE BOISE
- 10 Electronic pornography and the transnational assemblage of sexuality 172
KAREN GABRIEL
- 11 Gender trouble in cyberwar: Multiple masculinities and femininities of a cyberspy in the War on Terror 188
WINIFRED R. POSTER

PART IV

Bodies

- 12 The dynamics of displacement: Diasporic masculinities between margins and centres 205
SOFIA ABOIM AND PEDRO VASCONCELOS

13	Transnational 'winner' masculinities: Modernity and the transformation of intimacy	220
	ERNESTO VASQUEZ DEL AGUILA
14	Men and masculinities offside?: The [un]sustainability of the power of men	236
	IVA ŠMÍDOVÁ
	Index	251

Sofie Aboin is a tenured Assistant Professor at the Institute of Social Sciences of the University of Lisbon. Her research interests include gender feminism, masculinity studies and transnationalism as well as social inequality, justice, inequality and post-colonial studies. She is currently working on book projects about gender justice and politics while developing research on the same topics. Currently, she coordinates the project 'Transnational Gender citizenship and sexual rights in Europe' (Consolidator Grant, 2014-2020) funded by the European Research Council (ERC).

Dag Balkmar is a postdoctoral researcher in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, based in Gender Studies, Örebro University, Sweden. Balkmar's research encompasses three main areas: (1) Intersectionality, policy and violence, (2) Studies of men, masculinities, motor cultures, technology, risk-taking and identity, and (3) gender, organization and innovation. He is currently project leader of the project 'Trucks for all: Developing norm-critical innovation at Volvo' (financed by Sweden's innovation agency), and researcher in the project 'Regimes of Violence: Theorizing and explaining variations in the production of violence in welfare state regimes' (financed by the Swedish Research Council). Recent publications include articles in Applied Mobilities, Mobilities, and Transfers: Interdisciplinary Journal of Mobility Studies.

Richard Collier, FAcSS FRSA, is a Professor of Law at Newcastle University, UK. He has published very widely in the area of law and gender and is presently the recipient of a Leverhulme Trust Research Fellowship (2017-18) in connection with the project 'Wellbeing, law and society: politics, policy and practice - a socio-legal study', and writing a book on the relationship between law and wellbeing. His previous work has addressed aspects of family law, fatherhood, criminology, the legal profession and legal education and research, and his books include Men, Law and Gender: Essays on the 'Men' of Law (Routledge, 2010), Fragmenting Fatherhood: A Socio-Legal Study (with Sally Sheldon, Hart, 2003), Masculinity, Crime and Criminology: Men, Corporality and the Criminal Justice System (Sage, 1998), Masculinity, Law and the Family (Routledge, 1996) and Men's Rights Activism and Law Reform in