

Contents	3
Preface	6
1 Introduction	7
1.1 Concept of monograph, its purpose, and contents	7
1.2 Sources.....	9
1.3 Methodology.....	11
2 A brief survey of the political and economic development in the Czech Republic (1993–1997)	14
2.1 The first government of the Czech Republic.....	14
2.2 Ideological dispute over the character of economic transformation.....	15
2.3 A note on the Coupon Privatization.....	16
2.4 The reorientation of the Czech economy from East to West.....	17
2.5 Czech legislative election in 1996.....	18
2.6 Attempts to save the rule of coalition.....	19
3 The Founding of the PSE.....	21
3.1 The beginnings of beginnings.....	21
3.2 The Founding Contract.....	23
3.3 Tender offer 1991.....	23
3.4 Contract on putting the Exchange into operation.....	25
3.5 The Franco-Czech team and its activity.....	26
3.6 The rise of brokers' firms.....	27
3.7 Preparative Committee's transformation into a joint-stock company	28
3.8 The dissolution of the Association	29
4 The Czech capital market at the beginning of the economic transformation.....	32
4.1 Selected data about the Czech Republic	32
4.2 A survey of important events in 1990–1994	33
4.3 Three phases of the Czech capital market evolution	34
4.4 Phase 1	34
4.5 Phase 2	35
4.6 The regulatory framework of the Czech capital market	36
4.7 Clearing and settlement systems	37
4.8 Multiple trading channels	37
5 The features of the emerging Czech capital market and PSE position as seen through the lenses of 1993–1994	39
5.1 First year of the Czech capital market	39
5.2 First year of trading on the PSE	40
5.3 The specific and unique features of the emerging Czech capital market	40

6 PSE priorities for the first two years of its activity.....	43
6.1 Structure of PSE organization	44
6.2 The PSE trading system	44
6.3 A survey of the PSE regulatory documents issued in 1992–1994	45
7 The phenomenon of privatization funds: the PSE role.....	48
7.1 Selected facts on investment companies and funds position in 1994	48
7.2 Negative impact of the funds’ liberal regulation and a lack of an efficient supervision	49
7.3 The PSE role in trading the privatization funds’ shares	51
8 The PSE governance.....	52
8.1 The Exchange Chamber	53
8.2 Supervisory Committee	57
8.3 Exchange members	58
8.4 Territorial deployment of non-banks (1993–1997).....	61
8.5 PSE ownership structure (1992–1997).....	62
9 PSE and financial education	66
9.1 Czech financial education in the nineties	66
9.2 PSE activities on the field of financial education	66
9.3 PSE role in brokers’ professional education	67
10 The Czech press about the Czech capital market and PSE	69
10.1 The Czech press about the Czech capital market and PSE in 1994	70
10.2 The Czech press about the Czech capital market and PSE in 1995	79
10.3 Findings	92
11 Evaluation of PSE information sources	96
11.1 Classification of sources and evaluation criteria	96
11.2 Findings	97
12 The time of discussions and reforms	101
12.1 Conferences and seminars (1994–1996)	101
12.2 Initiative ODA (1995)	105
12.3 Discussion on the Securities Centre and clearing and settlement (ABK, 1995) .	107
13 Evaluation of the pros and cons	112
13.1 PSE and Ministry of Finance	112
13.2 PSE and RM-S: a strange symbiosis	116
13.3 Relations between PSE and the Czech press	119
13.4 Dilemmas of the PSE general policy	121
13.5 The PSE international position	126

Conclusion	132
Epilogue	136
References	138
Annex	143
List of tables	144
List of blocks	144
Index	145
List of abbreviations	149
Vocabulary.....	150
Reviewers C/Vs	151
Author's C/V	153
Summary	154