

Contents

Preface	ix
Preface to the First Edition	xi
1 Introductory Reflections Of Criteria, Evaluations, and Judgments	1
2 The Nixon Era A Turbulent Case Study	9
3 How They Get There Appointing Supreme Court Justices	19
4 Why They Get There Qualifications and Rationalizations	39
5 The First Forty Years From George Washington to John Quincy Adams, 1789–1829	57
6 The Next Forty Years From Andrew Jackson to Andrew Johnson, 1829–1869	77
7 The Balance of the Nineteenth Century From Ulysses S. Grant to William McKinley, 1869–1901	101
8 Into the Twentieth Century From Theodore Roosevelt to Herbert Hoover, 1901–1933	123

9 The Court Alters Course FDR and Truman, 1933–1953	163
10 The Warren Court From Ike to LBJ, 1953–1969	197
11 The Burger Court From Nixon to Reagan, 1969–1986	233
12 The Rehnquist Court Reagan, Bush I, Clinton, and Bush II, 1986–2005	275
13 The Roberts Court Bush II (in part) —	315
14 Epilogue	325
Notes	329
Appendix A: Rating Supreme Court Justices	373
Appendix B: Rating Presidents	377
Appendix C: Statistical Data on Supreme Court Justices	383
Bibliography	389
General Works	389
Works about or by Individual Justices	390
Photo Acknowledgments	421
Index of Cases	425
Index of Names	429
About the Author	439