

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Cliff Goddard
2	Minimal English and How It Can Add to Global English	5
	Cliff Goddard and Anna Wierzbicka
3	Minimal English: The Science Behind It	29
	Cliff Goddard
4	Minimal English and Diplomacy	71
	William Maley
5	Internationalizing Minimal English: Perils and Parallels	95
	Nicholas Farrelly and Michael Wesley
6	Charter of Global Ethic in Minimal English	113
	Anna Wierzbicka

7	Torture Laid Bare: Global English and Human Rights Annabelle Mooney	143
8	Talking About the Universe in Minimal English: Teaching Science Through Words That Children Can Understand Anna Wierzbicka	169
9	Big History Meets Minimal English David Christian	201
10	Introducing the Concept of the '65 Words' to the Public in Finland Ulla Vanhatalo and Juhana Torkki	225
11	Narrative Medicine Across Languages and Cultures: Using Minimal English for Increased Comparability of Patients' Narratives Bert Peeters and Maria Giulia Marini	259
	Index	287