

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
Preface	xi

Introduction: What Law for What Polity? 'Integration through Law' in the European Union Revisited	1
Daniel Augenstein and Mark Dawson

PART I: THE CONSTITUTIONAL FRAME OF EU LEGAL INTEGRATION

1	European Integration and European Constitutionalism: Consonances and Dissonances	11
	Maria Cahill
2	The Legal Viability of European Integration in the Absence of Constitutional Hierarchy	29
	Matej Avbelj
3	Taking Agency Seriously: An Examination of Legal Integration and Constitutionalism	47
	Alun Gibbs
	Intervention 1: Mapping the EU Constitutional Frame: Three Layers	61
	Niamh Nic Shuibhne

PART II: CONCEPTIONS AND ROLES OF LAW IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION

4	Concepts of Law in Integration through Law	69
	Cormac Mac Amhlaigh
5	Juridification, Integration and Depoliticization	85
	Scott Veitch

6	Identifying the European Union: Legal Integration and European Communities Daniel Augenstein	99
	Intervention 2: Law, Integration and Process Zenon Bańkowski	113
 PART III: BEYOND 'INTEGRATION THROUGH LAW'?
7	From Integration through Law to Integration through Conflict Rainer Nickel	121
8	Integration through Soft Law? New Governance and the Meaning of Legality in the European Union Mark Dawson	137
9	The Double Fragmentation of Law: Legal System-Internal Differentiation and the Process of Europeanization Jennifer Hendry	157
	Intervention 3: Plus ça change ... Jo Shaw	171
	Epilogue J.H.H. Weiler	175
	 Bibliography	 181
	Index	197