

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|-----------|
| INTRODUCTION | 1 |
| PART I INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL LAW | 7 |
| I. SCOPE | 9 |
| 1. Inter-State or transnational criminal law | 10 |
| 2. Suppression conventions | 12 |
| 3. 'International crimes of State' | 14 |
| 4. The Nuremberg Principles | 19 |
| 5. Note: Piracy and slavery | 23 |
| II. FROM NATIONAL TO INTERNATIONAL RESPONSIBILITY | 25 |
| 1. Clarity and prospectivity | 26 |
| 2. Jus cogens , sovereignty and the international interests underlying international criminal law | 41 |
| III. THE RULE OF LAW AND INTERNATIONAL ACCOUNTABILITY | 52 |
| PART II PRACTICE | 63 |
| IV. THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT | 67 |
| 1. Basic scheme of the Rome Statute | 67 |
| 2. Conclusion | 83 |
| V. NATIONAL PROCEEDINGS (INCLUDING AMNESTIES) | 84 |
| 1. Introduction | 84 |
| 2. The Rome Statute incentive | 86 |
| 3. Amnesties | 93 |
| 4. Conclusion | 102 |
| VI. UNIVERSAL JURISDICTION | 105 |
| 1. Introduction | 105 |
| 2. Definition and rationale | 106 |
| 3. Scope of Universal Jurisdiction with respect to the 'core crimes' of ICL | 109 |
| 4. Current development of universal jurisdiction | 112 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| 5. Practical and political problems to be addressed | 118 |
| 6. Conclusion | 126 |
| VII. IMMUNITY | 128 |
| 1. Introduction | 128 |
| 2. Official immunities: A Sketch | 128 |
| 3. Pinochet | 131 |
| 4. Immunity under the Rome Statute | 136 |
| 5. Immunity outside of the Rome Statute | 146 |
| 6. Conclusion | 149 |
| VIII. ICC ENFORCEMENT: COOPERATION OF STATES, INCLUDING THE SECURITY COUNCIL | 151 |
| 1. Introduction | 151 |
| 2. The Ad hoc tribunals: Foreshadowing the ICC | 151 |
| 3. Cooperation with States under the Rome Statute | 155 |
| 4. The Security Council | 160 |
| 5. Conclusions | 161 |
| IX. CORNERSTONE OR STUMBLING BLOCK? THE UNITED STATES AND THE ICC | 163 |
| 1. Introduction | 163 |
| 2. US Negotiating aims and 'flaws' in the Rome Statute | 164 |
| 3. The Clinton Administration's search for a negotiated 'fix' | 168 |
| 4. The U.S. under the Bush Administration | 178 |
| 5. The Argument for US support | 181 |
| 6. Conclusion | 182 |
| PART III CONCLUSION: SYSTEMIC CHANGE AND INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE | 185 |
| SOURCES | 193 |
| A. International Instruments, Including Resolutions and Declarations of Inter-Governmental Organizations | 193 |
| B. National Laws and Legislative Bills | 195 |
| C. Decisions of National and International Courts and Tribunals | 196 |
| D. Books, Journal Articles, Non-Governmental Reports | 197 |
| E. Reports of Governments and Inter-Governmental Organizations, Draft Instruments, Proposals, etc. | 205 |
| F. Press Releases, Articles, etc. | 208 |
| INDEX | 211 |