
Contents

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgments	xiv
The emergence of comparative legal history Aniceto Masferrer, Kjell Å. Modéer and Olivier Moréteau	1
PART I THEORY AND METHODS
1 What is comparative legal history? Legal historiography and the revolt against formalism, 1930–60 Adolfo Giuliani	30
2 Comparative? Legal? History? Crossing boundaries Seán Patrick Donlan	78
3 Methodological perspectives in comparative legal history: an analytical approach Dag Michalsen	96
4 Comparative legal history: methodology for morphology Matthew Dyson	110
PART II LEGAL SOURCES
5 Here, there and everywhere ... or nowhere? Some comparative and historical afterthoughts about custom as a source of law Jacques Vanderlinden	140
6 Convergence and the colonization of custom in pre-modern Europe Emily Kadens	167
7 Custom as a source of law in European and East Asian legal history Marie Seong-Hak Kim	186
8 The ius commune as the ‘ ratio scripta ’ in the civil law tradition: a comparative approach to the Spanish case Aniceto Masferrer and Juan A. Obarrio	212
9 Legal education in England and Continental Europe between the Middle Ages and the early modern period: a comparison Dolores Freda	242
PART III LEGAL INSTITUTIONS
10 The triumph of judicial review: the evolution of post-revolutionary legal thought Jean-Louis Halpérin	262

vi Comparative legal history

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 11 | Killing the vampire of human culture: slavery as a problem in international law
Paul Finkelman and Seymour Drescher | 284 |
| 12 | Continental European superior courts and procedure in civil actions (11th–19th centuries)
C.H. (Remco) van Rhee | 318 |
| 13 | The genesis of concepts of possession and ownership in the civilian tradition and at common law: how did common law manage without a concept of ownership? Why Roman law did not
Anna Taitlin | 341 |
| 14 | The Common law and the Code civil : the curious case of the law of contract
Warren Swain | 379 |
| 15 | When the wind turned from South to West: the transition of Scandinavian legal cultures 1945–2000, a comparative sketch
Kjell Å. Modéer | 400 |

PART IV CODIFICATION

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 16 | Unification and codification in today's European private law and 19th-century Germany: the challenges and opportunities of comparing historical and ongoing events
Dirk Heirbaut | 416 |
| 17 | Owning the conceptualization of ownership: American civil law jurisdictions and the origins of 19th-century code provisions
Agustín Parise | 432 |
| 18 | Why was private law not codified in Sweden and Finland?
Heikki Pihlajamäki | 465 |
| | Index | 483 |