

Contents

Acknowledgements

Introduction

Scenography as theatre-making 5

Theatre, performance and scenography 8

Research questions and chapters 14

1 Place orientation, scenic politics and scenographics

Scenes and scenic politics 24

Scenographics 28

Othering tactics 32

2 Scenography and the Anglophone theatres

The first adoption of scenography 40

Continental differences pre-1960 41

The second adoption of scenography 42

Sound and costume as scenography 46

3 Scenography beyond scenographers

Mise en scène and scenography 52

Whose scenography? 56

Beyond dramaturgy and choreography 58

Expanded scene design? 61

4 Scenography happens

The time of scenography 68

Scenography beyond set 71

Gecko's MISSING set 73

5 Scenographic worlding

Stage geographies 81

Stage ideologies 84

Scenography beyond stages? 86

Stage-scenes beyond vision 92

6 Scenographic cultures

Installation art and scenographic scale 101

Interior design and scenographic behaviours 104

Marketing and scenographic seduction 108

vii

1

19

39

51

67

79

99

Gardening and scenographic curation 111

Protest and scenographic activism 113

7 Scenographic architecture

Fast architecture 120

Trompe l'oeil and scenographic propaganda 125

Potemkin villages and scenographic placemaking 127

Conclusion

Bibliography

Index

119

133

137

147

12

67

79

99

