

Contents

Preface	v
Jack Beatson	Finessing substantive 'public law' principles into 'private law' relations 1
Alfred Cockrell	Second-guessing the exercise of contractual power on rationality grounds 26
Hugh Collins	Productive learning from the collision between the doctrinal subsystems of contract and tort 55
Annél van Aswegen	The concurrence of contractual and delictual liability for damages: Factors determining solutions 75
Dave Hutchison and Belinda van Heerden	The tort/contract divide seen from the South African perspective 97
Reinhard Zimmermann	Restitution after termination for breach of contract in German law 121
Robin Evan-Jones	The claim to recover what was transferred for a lawful purpose outwith contract (condictio causa data causa non secuta) 139
Hector L MacQueen	Contract, unjustified enrichment and concurrent liability: A Scots perspective . 176
Sally Hutton	Restitution after breach of contract: Rethinking the conventional jurisprudence 201
Kenneth G C Reid	Obligations and property: exploring the border 225
Gerhard Lubbe	A doctrine in search of a theory: Reflections on the so-called doctrine of notice in South African Law 246
D H van Zyl	Enrichment and wrongs in South African Law 273
John Blackie	Enrichment, wrongs and invasion of rights in Scots Law 284