

Contents

Preface to the Second Edition	vii
Preface to the First Edition	ix

1. Justice, Law and History	1
Morality	4
History	7
Law	11
Situating Jurisprudence.....	16

PART ONE: FOUNDATIONS

2. Origins of the Western Jurisprudential Tradition.....	21
A Basic Division.....	23
Aristotelian Political Thought.....	30
The Abandonment of Aristotle.....	34
Suggested Reading	37
3. Jurisprudence: The Classical Tradition	39
Positive Law	40
Natural Law.....	42
The Relationship Between Natural Law and Positive Law	46
Justice and Determination	49
Human Knowledge of Natural Law	50
Suggested Reading	52
4. The Emergence of 'Modern' Political Thought.....	53
Hobbes's View of the Human Condition.....	54
Law and Society	59
The Political Context of Leviathan	62
A Divided Inheritance	67
Suggested Reading	70
5. Images of Law from Grotius to Kant	72
Grotius as a Natural Lawyer.....	75
A New Framework.....	79
Suggested Reading	90

PART TWO: DEBATES

6.	Positive Law, Positive Justice: Hart.....	93
	The Basic Dimensions of Hart's Positivism	99
	The Nature of Law	104
	Law and Morality.....	110
	Natural Law	112
	Justice and Equality.....	118
	Suggested Reading	123
7.	Justice in the 'Real World': Dworkin.....	125
	The Philosopher-Judge.....	127
	Could the Law be an Expression of Something Other than 'Integrity'?	136
	Objectivity, Truth and Scepticism.....	146
	Philosopher-Kings and Philosopher-Judges	148
	Suggested Reading	149
8.	Justice and the Liberal State: Rawls.....	151
	Rational Reflection and Questions of Method.....	154
	The Problem of Justice	158
	The First Principle of Justice	164
	The Second Principle.....	168
	The Basic Structure in Context	174
	Suggested Reading	176
9.	Justice and the Common Good: Finnis.....	177
	Introducing the Political Philosophy	177
	The Basic Goods	181
	The Status of Practical Reasonableness	186
	Order, Community and Justice	188
	Justice and Rights.....	201
	The Overall Direction of Finnis's Account	207
	Suggested Reading	209
10.	Justice and Legality: Fuller	211
	Legality and Justice	212
	Justice and the Institutional Reality of Law.....	222
	Eunomics: The Theory of Good Order	227
	The Direction of Fuller's Thought	232
	Suggested Reading	235

11. Justice and Legal Order: Further Reflections.....	237
Natural Right and Natural Law.....	237
The Origin of the Law's Authority.....	245
Legal Order and Positive Law.....	251
Summing Up.....	256
Suggested Reading.....	258
12. Conclusions?	259
Index	265