

Physical Activity Intervention Series Preface	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Credits	xiii

PART ONE Physical Activity Behavior

ONE	Physical Activity Behavior Unique to Children and Adolescents	3
	Physical Activity Definitions • Purposes of Physical Activity • Physical Activity Guidelines • Summary
TWO	The Role of Theory in Understanding Physical Activity Behavior	21
	Explaining Behavior With Theory • Defining Social Cognitive Theory • Applying Behavior Theory • Using Theory to Facilitate Behavior Change • Avoiding Common Mistakes When Using Theory • Summary
THREE	Physical Activity Behavior Intervention	43
	Types of Settings • Choosing an Intervention Setting • Organizing Activities • Designing an Intervention for Skill Development • Summary

PART TWO Documented Interventions

FOUR	School-Based Interventions	61
	Making the Most of the School Setting • Using Behavior Theory in School-Based Interventions • Developing Quality Physical Education Programs • Evaluating Physical Education Interventions • Adding Physical Activity to the Classroom • Promoting Physical Activity With Comprehensive and Coordinated Interventions • Working Effectively With Schools • Summary
FIVE	Community Interventions	87
	Making the Most of the Community Setting • Using Behavior Theory in Community Interventions • Organizing Community Interventions • Descriptions of Successful Community Interventions • Working in and With Communities • Summary

SIX Family-Based Interventions in Home and Health Care Settings 105

Making the Most of Home and Health Care Settings •
Organizing Family-Based Interventions • Using Behavior
Theory in Family-Based Interventions • Evaluating Home and Health Care Interventions • Working With Families in Home and Health Care Settings • Summary

PART THREE Intervention Design

SEVEN Planning Physical Activity Programs 123
Step 1: Identify and Engage Partners • Step 2: Plan the Program Based on Needs • Summary

EIGHT Measuring Physical Activity 145
Subjective Measures of Physical Activity • Objective Measures of Physical Activity • Influences on Physical Activity • Physical Fitness Measures • Summary

NINE Planning for Physical Activity Program Evaluation 167
Review of Program Planning • Step 3: Focus the Evaluation • Summary

TEN Implementing and Monitoring Physical Activity Programs 187
Process Evaluation Elements • Step 4: Carry Out
Program and Implement Program Evaluation Plan •
Step 5: Analyze and Interpret Results • Step 6:
Disseminate Results • Summary

Appendix: Worksheets and Instruments 207

References 247

Index 261

About the Authors 269