

Contents

About the Author	x
List of Figures and Tables	xi
Preface	xii
PART I GETTING STARTED: THE ESSENTIALS	1
1 Why use Social Media in your Studies and Research?	3
Overview	3
What is 'social media'?	3
Social media in study and research	5
Social media in the university environment	9
2 Social Media Basics	19
Overview	19
Functional commonalities of social media	19
Communication expectations and social media	27
PART II CORE SOCIAL MEDIA FORMATS	39
3 Blogs	41
Overview	41
What is a blog?	41
Blogging in higher education	46
Why lecturers want you to blog	48
Successful engagement with blogging	50
Special considerations for blogging	55
4 Wikis	60
What is a wiki?	60
Wikis in higher education	62
Why lecturers want you to use a wiki	65

Successful engagement with wikis	67
Special considerations for wikis	72
5 Social Networks	77
Overview	77
What are social networks?	77
Social networks in higher education	81
Why lecturers want you to use a social network	83
Successful engagement with social networking	85
Research focus	88
Special considerations for social networking	89
6 Audio-visual Presentations	94
Overview	94
What are audio-visual (AV) presentations?	94
AV presentations in higher education	98
Why lecturers want you to create AV presentations	99
Successful engagement with AV presentations	101
Special considerations for audio-visual presentations	106
PART III SOCIAL MEDIA FOR SELF-DIRECTED LEARNING, RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT	113
7 Building your Online Profile	115
Overview	115
Why is your online profile important?	115
Using social media tools for building your online profile	119
Online portfolios	122
Successful engagement with building your online profile	125
Special considerations for building your online profile	128
8 Using Social Media for Search and Research	133
Overview	133
Why search and research with social media?	133
Social media tools for search and research	138
Using mobile devices for study and research	141
Successful engagement with using social media for search and research	144
Special considerations for using social media for search and research	145

9 Productivity in Study and Research	150
Overview	150
Why use productivity tools for study and research?	150
Social media tools for productivity management	153
Successful engagement with productivity tools	156
Special considerations for productivity tools	160
 PART IV THE SOCIAL AND LEGAL CONTEXTS OF USING SOCIAL MEDIA FOR STUDY AND RESEARCH	 165
10 Building your Digital Literacy	167
Overview	167
The digital revolution	167
What is digital literacy?	170
A holistic understanding of digital literacy	176
Building your digital literacy	176
Factors impacting on your digital literacy	179
11 Handling Yourself (and Others) Online	183
Overview	183
Developing a communication framework	183
Bullying and aggression	190
Handling cyberaggression	193
Concluding remark: there are formal bounds on our behaviours	199
12 Legalities and Practicalities of the Online Environment	203
Overview	203
Signing up for a service	203
Terms of Service	207
Legal and quasi-legal issues	210
General use issues	215
Issues for assessment	217
Assurances you need in the use of social media services	220
 Afterword	 222
Bibliography	223
Index	229