Index

Entries are alphabetised word by word. Component parts of compound names are treated as separate words and the Arabic definite article al- (as-, ar-, az-, etc.) is ignored. The contraction 'l is also ignored. Thus Abu'l-Qāsim follows Abū Muslim. To facilitate the location of entries thus affected, a space has been inserted between the root of the word and connecting material, e.g. Ṣaḥīḥ yu'd-Dīn is listed before Saḥīḥa, and Nāṣir u'd-Dīn Shāh precedes Nāṣir Uṭrush. The term 'ibn' is ignored when it appears within a name, e.g. Ḥusayn ibn 'Alī, but is indexed when at the beginning of a name, e.g. Ibn 'Abbās.
