

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

- Outlines the theatre during the second half of the twentieth century. Is stage design an independent artistic discipline? Can theatre be exhibited through stage design? How, when and why the Prague Quadrennial was established. _____ 5
- PQ 67 Presents the following personalities: Brecht's colleague Karl von Appen, the Polish set Tadeusz Kantor - Józef Szajna - Andrzej Majewski, Strehler's stage designer Luciano Damiani. Comparative section: Productions of the Operas of W. A. Mozart. _____ 9
- PQ 71 World interest in stage design increases despite the complex situation in the host country. Did the PQ break away from live theatre? Salvador Dali exhibits for Spain. Comparative section: Productions of the Works of W. Shakespeare. _____ 49
- PQ 75 The arrival of action stage design complicates the possibilities of its presentation in the exhibition hall. How can one demonstrate atypical forms of production space? Comparative section: Stage design schools. _____ 89
- PQ 79 The theme of the game (children's and adult) as a method of dramatic activity, the space for the game and contacts with art and sculpture: the Scarabee Studio, Konfiguration. Stage design schools become a established part of the PQ. Comparative section: Puppets. _____ 129
- PQ 83 How can stage design be presented in the exhibition hall? As a document of the performance or as a free variation of a given production theme? Comparative section: Stage design of musical - dramatic Works by Czech and Slovak authors. _____ 169
- PQ 87 The historical stage as a topical means of expression. The return of illusion. Action stage design is pushed out by a new form of art. Comparative section: Productions of the Plays of A. P. Chekhov. _____ 209
- PQ 91 Stage design as a new type of exhibition artefact. Postmodern collage emphasises oblique space as a sign of emotional and spatial instability. Comparative section: Productions of the Operas of W. A. Mozart. _____ 249

CZECHOSLOVAKIA

- A survey of Czech and Slovak stage design over the past thirty years. _____ 289

THEATRE ARCHITECTURE AT THE PRAGUE QUADRENNIAL

- From the theatre building to the production space: new buildings, culture houses and multi-purpose halls, studio spaces, the adaptation of non-theatre space, theatre in the open air, mobile theatre, the reconstruction of historical buildings. _____ 329

- A LIST OF THE PRODUCTIONS IN THE TEXT AND PHOTOGRAPHS _____ 361

- A LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS _____ 382