

Table of contents

Abbreviations	15
PREFACE	17
CHAPTER 1	19
FLEXIBILITY OF LABOUR RELATIONS IN THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC IN THE LIGHT OF EUROPEAN LABOUR LAW	19
Introduction	19
§ 1 Determining signs of increasing flexibility in labour relations in Slovak labour law	20
I. Non-standard employment contracts	21
II. Working time	23
III. Equal treatment principle	24
IV. Corporate restructuring	25
A. Transfer of undertaking	25
B. Insolvency of employer	26
C. Collective redundancies	27
V. Fundamental human rights – limits for increases in labour relations flexibility for the future	27
CHAPTER 2	29
REFORM OF LABOUR LAW IN THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC	29
§ 1 General legal framework of the current legal state	29
I. New legal definition of dependent work	31
II. Establishment of employment	31
III. Agencies for employment	32
IV. Probationary period	32
V. Fixed-term employment relationship	32
VI. Termination of employment relationship	33
VII. Notice period	33
A. Monetary compensation in case when employee does not continue to work for employer until the end of notice period	34
VIII. Offer of another suitable work – substantive condition of notice	34
IX. Collective redundancies	34
X. Participation of employee representatives in termination of employment relationship	35

XI. Invalidity of termination of employment	35
XII. New legal regulation of severance allowance upon termination of employment relationship	36
XIII. Regulation of competing earning activities of employee	36
XIV. Legislative changes of regulation of working time	36
XV. New legal regulation of paid holiday	37
XVI. Agreements on work performed outside of employment relationship	38
XVII. New legal regulation of collective labour law	38
XVIII. Entitlements of employee representatives to time off from work	39
Conclusion	39
CHAPTER 3	41
FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF SLOVAK LABOUR LAW	41
§ 1 Protection of human dignity	42
I. Legal foundations of protection of human dignity	43
§ 2 Prohibition of forced or compulsory labour	44
§ 3 Freedom of association	45
§ 4 Protection of employee's privacy	46
§ 5 Freedom of contract in labour law	48
I. Freedom of selection of contracting partner	49
II. Freedom of conclusion of contract	49
III. Freedom of determination of content of contract	49
IV. Freedom of dissolution (termination) of contract	49
V. Freedom of choice of contractual form	50
VI. Contract principle in collective labour law	50
§ 6 Principle of equal treatment	50
I. General characteristics	50
II. Legal basis of prohibition of discrimination in Slovak labour law	51
III. General prohibition of discrimination in labour-law relationships	51
A. Concept of direct discrimination	52
B. Concept of indirect discrimination	52
IV. Application of principle of equal treatment in labour-law relationships	52
V. Grounds of discrimination	53
A. Sex and gender	53
B. Religion and belief	54
C. Racial and ethnic origin	54
D. Age	54
E. Sexual orientation	54
F. Health disability	54
VI. Concept of harassment	55
VII. Concept of sexual harassment	55
VIII. Exceptions from prohibition of discrimination	55
§ 7 Prohibition of abuse of right	56
I. Requirement to exercise rights in accordance with good morals	57

CHAPTER 4	58
TERMS EMPLOYEE AND EMPLOYER	58
§ 1 General legal characteristics of the term employee	58
I. Trader – entrepreneur	59
II. Employee working from home and teleworker	60
III. Professional sportsmen	61
IV. Managers and statutory body members	62
§ 2 Term employer	63
I. Categories of employers	63
A. Employer – legal person	64
B. Employer – natural person	66
§ 3 Employer’s legal position	67
CHAPTER 5	69
EMPLOYMENT OF FOREIGNERS IN THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC	69
§ 1 General characteristics – sources of law	69
§ 2 Conflict-of-law rules	70
I. Rome I Regulation	70
A. Choice of law	70
B. Principle of employee’s benefit	71
C. Mandatory rules	75
§ 3 Right to free movement of employees	75
I. Prohibition of discrimination of employees in free movement of employees	76
A. Access to employment	76
B. Right to free pursuit of employment and prohibition of discrimination	77
§ 4 Temporary posting of employees	77
I. Guarantee of hard core of working conditions	78
CHAPTER 6	80
ESTABLISHMENT OF EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP	80
§ 1 Employer’s information duties	80
§ 2 Information duties of a natural person – future employee	81
§ 3 Establishment of employment relationship by employment contract	82
I. Form of employment contract	83
II. Content of employment contract	83
A. Type of work	84
B. Place of performance of work	84
C. Date of commencement of work	85
D. Wage conditions	86
E. Agreement on probationary period	87
III. Types of employment contracts	87
A. Fixed-term employment relationship	87
B. Part-time employment relationship	90
C. Job sharing	90
IV. Concurrence of employment relationships	91

CHAPTER 7	92
ATYPICAL EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS	92
§ 1 Manager's contract	92
§ 2 Employment contract on home work or telework	93
§ 3 Agreement on work performed outside employment relationship	93
I. Work performance agreement	95
II. Agreement on temporary job of students	95
III. Agreement on work activity	96
§ 4 Agency work	96
CHAPTER 8	97
MODIFICATION OF EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP	97
§ 1 Modification of content of employment relationship	97
I. Transfer to different work	97
A. Long-term loss of health capability	98
B. Achievement of maximum exposure permitted	99
C. Transfer of a pregnant woman, mother within 9 months of childbirth or breastfeeding mother	99
D. Quarantine	99
E. Final judicial decision	100
F. Transfer of an employee working at night	100
G. Averting an exceptional event or mitigating its immediate consequences	101
II. Agreement on temporary allocation of employee	101
A. Relationship between employee allocated on temporary basis and hiring employer	101
B. Unilateral termination of temporary allocation	102
C. Right to damages	102
D. Temporary employment agency	103
III. Transfer of undertaking or part of undertaking	103
A. Concept of (part of) undertaking	103
B. Employer's information duties	104
C. Preservation of rights of employees	105
D. Protection against termination of employment relationship by employer	106
E. Continuing force of collective agreements	106
F. Protection of functions of employee representatives	106
CHAPTER 9	108
TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP	108
§ 1 Agreement on termination of employment relationship	108
§ 2 Termination of employment relationship by notice	109
I. Notice	109
II. Notice period	109
A. Monetary compensation in case when employee does not continue to work for employer until the end of notice period	110

III. Participation of employee representatives in termination of employment relationship	111
IV. Invalidity of termination of employment	111
V. New legal regulation of severance allowance at termination of employment relationship	112
VI. Regulation of competing earning activities of employee	112
VII. Offer of other appropriate work	112
VIII. Reasons for notice	113
A. Reason for notice under Section 63(1)(a) point 1 LC	115
B. Reason for notice under Section 63(1)(a) point 2 LC	115
C. Employee's redundancy	116
D. Employee's health reasons	116
E. Failure to meet prerequisites for performance of work	117
F. Reason for notice under Section 42(2) LC	117
G. Failure to meet requirements for performance of work by the employee	118
H. Breach of work discipline	119
IX. Subjective and objective time-bar period	120
X. Prohibition of notice	121
A. Employee's temporary incapacity for work	122
B. Employee's pregnancy, maternity and parenthood	122
C. Performance of public function by the employee	123
D. Employee's temporary incapacity for performance of night work	123
XI. Exceptions from protection period	123
§ 3 Notice given by employee	124
§ 4 Immediate termination of employment relationship	124
I. Immediate termination of employment relationship	126
A. Conviction of an intentional criminal offence by final judgment	126
B. Serious breach of work discipline	126
C. Breach of work discipline abroad	127
D. Prohibition of immediate termination of employment relationship	127
II. Immediate termination of employment relationship by the employee	128
A. Serious threat to employee's health	128
B. Imminent threat to employee's life or health	129
C. Failure to pay wage or wage compensation	130
D. Risk to morals	131
E. Wage compensation as satisfaction for immediate termination of employment relationship	131
§ 5 Termination of fixed-term employment relationship	132
I. Reclassification of employment relationship into employment relationship for indefinite period	132
§ 6 Termination of employment relationship during probationary period	133
I. Peculiarities of termination of employment relationship during probationary period with respect to special categories of employees	133
§ 7 Collective redundancies	134
§ 8 Nullity of termination of employment relationship	135

I. Termination of employment relationship by employee	136
A. Form of notification	136
B. Fiction of termination of employment relationship by agreement	137
II. Termination of employment relationship by employer	137
A. Employee's written notification	137
B. Continuation of work	138
C. Wage compensation	138
D. Fiction of termination of employment relationship by agreement	140
§ 9 Legal regulation of provision of severance allowance upon termination of employment relationship	140
§ 10 Discharge benefit upon termination of employment relationship	142
CHAPTER 10	143
EMPLOYEE'S LEGAL DUTIES	143
§ 1 Duty to work responsibly and properly	143
§ 2 Duty to follow instructions of superiors issued in accordance with legal regulations	143
§ 3 Duty to use working time	144
§ 4 Employee's duty to comply with legal regulations and other regulations relating to work he performs if he was properly informed thereof	144
§ 5 Duty to comply with rules of treatment during temporary inability to work	145
§ 6 Duty not to act in contradiction to justified interests of employer	145
§ 7 Employee's duty to respect business secret	145
§ 8 Duty to respect prohibition of smoking imposed in workplaces	146
§ 9 Limitation of employee's competing activity	147
I. Performance of competing activity during employment relationship	147
II. Limitation of performance of employee's competing activity beyond employment relationship	147
A. Remuneration for performance of a competing activity by the employee	148
B. Adequate pecuniary compensation in case of a breach of the employee's obligation	148
§ 10 Duties of employees under the rules on occupational safety and health	148
CHAPTER 11	150
LEGAL REGULATION OF WORKING TIME	150
§ 1 General characteristics	150
§ 2 Legislative changes of regulation of working time as of 1 st January 2013	151
§ 3 Concept of working time	152
§ 4 Length of working time	153
I. Stipulated weekly working time	153
II. Maximum daily working time	153
A. Maximum working time for adolescent employees	154
B. Working time of healthcare workers (opt-out)	154
§ 5 Even distribution of working time	154
§ 6 Uneven distribution of working time	155

I. Agreement with representatives of employees in case of distribution period longer than four months	155
II. Agreement with categories of employees enjoying special protection	156
III. Working time account	156
A. Agreement on introducing a working time account	156
B. Employee's right to constant wage in case of application of working time account	157
C. Return of wage paid upon termination of employment relationship	157
§ 7 Flexible working time	157
§ 8 Employee's right to different regulation of working time	158
§ 9 Work on public holidays	158
§ 10 On-call duty	159
I. Extent of on-call duty	159
II. Limitation of scope of on-call duty under a collective agreement	160
III. Prohibition of ordering on-call duty	160
IV. Different remuneration of on-call duty	160
§ 11 Overtime work	160
I. Agreement with employee representatives on conditions of overtime work	161
II. Risky work	161
§ 12 Night work	161
I. Prohibition of ordering night work	162
§ 13 Special duties of the employer concerning documentation of working time	162
I. Employer's reporting duty	163
II. Employer's registration duty	163
CHAPTER 12	164
REST PERIODS	164
§ 1 Breaks at work for rest and eating	164
§ 2 Safety breaks at work	164
§ 3 Breaks at work for breastfeeding	165
§ 4 Continuous daily rest	165
I. Conditions of reducing daily rest after work	165
§ 5 Continuous rest in a week	165
I. First model of application of continuous rest in a week	166
II. Second model of application of continuous rest in a week	166
III. Third model of application of continuous rest in a week	167
IV. Fourth model of application of continuous rest in a week	167
V. Fifth model of application of continuous rest in a week	168
§ 6 Rest days	168
CHAPTER 13	169
PAID HOLIDAY	169
§ 1 General characteristics	169
§ 2 Types of paid holiday	169
I. Annual paid holiday	169

II. Paid holiday for days worked	170
III. Supplementary paid holiday	170
IV. Proportionate part of annual paid holiday	171
A. Proportionate part of paid holiday in case of termination of employment relationship	171
B. Proportionate part of paid holiday in case of changing employment	171
§ 3 Extent of paid holiday	171
I. Increase of extent of paid holiday	172
II. Extent of paid holiday in particular cases	172
§ 4 Reduction of paid holiday	173
§ 5 Employer's right to determine the taking of paid holiday	174
I. Employer's duties	174
II. Collective taking of paid holiday	174
A. Extent of collective taking of paid holiday	176
CHAPTER 14	177
REMUNERATION FOR WORK	177
§ 1 General characteristics	177
§ 2 Minimum wage, wage conditions	177
§ 3 Wage conditions according to the Labour Code	178
I. Wage amount in the employment contract and collective agreement	179
§ 4 Wage in kind	179
§ 5 Wage in foreign currency	180
§ 6 Payment term of wage	180
I. Transfer of wage to the employee's account	181
§ 7 Wage and wage surcharge for overtime work	181
I. Alternative time-off based on an agreement between the employer and the employee	181
II. Overtime work reflected in the amount of wage	182
§ 8 Wage and wage compensation for public holiday	182
I. Wage agreed as reflecting work on public holidays in the case of executive employees	183
§ 9 Wage surcharge for night work	183
§ 10 Wage compensation for work performed in difficult conditions	184
CHAPTER 15	185
OBSTACLES TO WORK	185
§ 1 General characteristics	185
§ 2 Obstacles to work on the employee's part	185
I. Obstacles to work in case of performing civic duties and other acts in general interest	186
II. Increasing qualification	186
III. Important personal obstacles to work on the employee's part	186
A. Examination or treatment of employee in a medical facility	187
B. Accompanying a family member in a medical facility	187

C. Preventative medical examination during pregnancy	188
D. Employee's wedding	188
E. Birth of the employee's child	188
F. Other obstacles to work on the employee's part	189
G. Impossibility of travelling to work	189
H. Employee's moving	189
I. Looking for a new job	189
§ 3 Obstacles on the employer's part	190
I. Stoppage	190
II. Bad weather conditions	190
III. Obstacle to work consisting in operational grounds on the employer's part	190
IV. Other obstacles to work	191
CHAPTER 16	192
WORKING CONDITIONS OF WOMEN AND MEN CARING FOR CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENT EMPLOYEES	192
§ 1 Work prohibited to pregnant and breastfeeding women and mothers after childbirth	192
I. Other prohibitions of work	193
§ 2 Maternity leave and parental leave	193
§ 3 Working conditions of adolescent employees	194
I. Prohibition of inappropriate types of work	194
II. Other types of work prohibited to adolescent employees	194
CHAPTER 17	196
LIABILITY FOR DAMAGE IN LABOUR LAW	196
§ 1 General characteristics of liability in labour law	196
§ 2 Employee's liability for damage caused to employer	197
I. Employee's general liability for damage	198
II. Liability for the failure to fulfil the obligation to avert damage	198
III. Liability for the deficit in accountable entrusted assets	198
IV. Liability for the loss of entrusted objects	199
V. Scope of compensation of damage by the employee	199
§ 3 Employer's liability for damage caused to his employees	200
I. Employer's general liability for damage	200
II. Liability for damage to things laid aside	201
III. Liability in averting damage	201
IV. Liability for damage in case of accident at work and occupational diseases	201
§ 4 Compensation of damage	203
CHAPTER 18	204
COLLECTIVE LABOUR LAW	204
§ 1 Trade union pluralism	204
I. Powers of trade union bodies in employer's undertaking	204
A. Right of co-decision	205

B. Control activities	205
C. Right to collective bargaining	206
D. Right to consultation	206
E. Right to information	206
§ 2 Works councils	206
I. Powers of works councils	207
CHAPTER 19	208
COLLECTIVE AGREEMENTS	208
§ 1 Types of collective agreements	208
§ 2 Formal particulars of collective agreements	209
§ 3 Validity and effectiveness of collective agreements	209
I. Validity and effectiveness of collective agreements in relation to the transfer of rights and obligations	208
§ 4 Extension of applicability of collective agreements	210
Bibliography	211