

Contents

List of illustrations

Preface

Glossary

List of abbreviations

Part I

Introduction

- 1 The making of modern France
  - 1.1 Introduction
  - 1.2 The ancien régime
  - 1.3 The French Revolution: the making of modern France
  - 1.4 The French Revolution: a divisive heritage
  - 1.5 The Third Republic, 1870–1940
  - 1.6 Vichy and the French Resistance 1940–4
  - 1.7 The Fourth Republic 1944–58
- 2 France since 1958
  - 2.1 Introduction
  - 2.2 De Gaulle's republic
  - 2.3 May '68: the Fifth Republic in crisis
  - 2.4 Georges Pompidou, 1969–74: the acceptable face of Gaullism?
  - 2.5 Valéry Giscard d'Estaing, 1974–81
  - 2.6 François Mitterrand, 1981–8: the chameleon
  - 2.7 Mitterrand's second term, 1988–95
  - 2.8 Jacques Chirac, 1995–7: the abrupt presidency
  - 2.9 Jospin and the plural left coalition, 1997–2002
  - 2.10 Chirac's second term, 2002–7

MASARYKOVA UNIVERZITA

Fakulta sociálních studií

Jeřteřova 10

602 00 B R N O

8C

2.11	Nicolas Sarkozy's fast presidency, 2007–12	38
2.12	François Hollande's 'normal' presidency, 2012–17	41
2.13	Concluding remarks	45
3	French political culture: representations and realities	49
3.1	Political culture in France: the traditional reading	49
3.2	A divided France? Post-revolutionary political culture(s)	51
3.3	Exceptionalism, decline and revival	58
3.4	Concluding remarks	61
Part II
Institutions and power
4	Presidents and prime ministers	67
4.1	Introduction	67
4.2	Political leadership in the French Republican tradition	67
4.3	The 1958 constitution	68
4.4	The French presidency	71
4.5	Presidential style	72
4.6	Presidential resources	75
4.7	Prime-ministerial political leadership	77
4.8	Changing temporalities of French politics: towards a fast presidency?	83
4.9	Concluding comments	85
5	Checks and balances?	89
5.1	Introduction	89
5.2	The evolving constitution	89
5.3	The French parliament	93
5.4	The organisation of the French parliament in the Fifth Republic	94
5.5	Parliament in the Fifth Republic: an emasculated legislature?	96
5.6	Political dynamics and the operation of parliament	100
5.7	The judicialisation of French politics?	102
5.8	Concluding remarks	107
6	Reforming the state	111
6.1	Introduction	111
6.2	The French civil service: characteristics, context and culture	111

- 6.3 Reforming the French state: the public-service narrative
- 6.4 Reforming the French state: the state-productivity narrative and its limits
- 6.5 The French state today: continuity, conflict, cohesion
- 6.6 Concluding comments
- 7 A decentralised republic in a unitary state? Local and regional government
  - 7.1 Introduction
  - 7.2 From the French model of territorial administration to the decentralised republic
  - 7.3 Actors and institutions of territorial governance
  - 7.4 Dimensions and dilemmas of territorial governance
  - 7.5 Concluding remarks

Part III

Political forces and representation

- 8 The French party system: change and understanding change
  - 8.1 Introduction
  - 8.2 The French party system before 1981
  - 8.3 The changing French party system
  - 8.4 Cohesion and continuity of the French party system
  - 8.5 Concluding remarks
- 9 French parties today
  - 9.1 Introduction
  - 9.2 The Republicans and their allies
  - 9.3 Socialists, Communists and Greens
  - 9.4 The Front National
  - 9.5 Concluding remarks
- 10 The representation of interests
  - 10.1 Introduction
  - 10.2 Economic interest groups
  - 10.3 Social movements old and new
  - 10.4 Groups and the French political system
  - 10.5 Concluding remarks

Part IV	Reshaping modern France
11	Society, citizenship and welfare	229
11.1	Introduction	229
11.2	The evolution of French society: social consensus or social fracture?	229
11.3	The economy and economic governance	234
11.4	Social policy, the welfare state and the French social model	244
11.5	Concluding remarks	249
12	The Republican model of citizenship and its limits	253
12.1	Introduction	253
12.2	The French Republican tradition	253
12.3	The Republican model and the challenges of multiculturalism	256
12.4	The Republican tradition and the challenge of territory: the case of lesser used languages	261
12.5	Multiple identities in contemporary France: a case study from Brittany	265
12.6	Concluding remarks	268
13	Europe and Europeanisation	271
13.1	Introduction	271
13.2	France and the European Union	271
13.3	Quelle finalité européenne? The French vision of Europe	279
13.4	France and Europeanisation	284
13.5	Concluding remarks	291
14	The Republic in danger?	297
14.1	Timeless institutions?	297
14.2	The Republic in danger!	300
14.3	The danger of hysteresis	305
	Index	309