

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
1 Overview	I
1.1 Introduction	I
1.2 Aims	3
1.3 Organisation	4
2 Approaching Intercultural Communication	5
2.1 Chapter objectives	5
2.2 Intercultural communication: what is it?	5
2.3 Culture	9
2.4 Key points	16
2.5 Further reading	16
2.6 Activities	16
3 The Genealogy of Intercultural Communication	18
3.1 Chapter objectives	18
3.2 Culture	20
3.3 Multiculturalism	24
3.4 Intercultural communication	28
3.5 Key points	33
3.6 Further reading	33
3.7 Activities	34
4 Language and Culture	36
4.1 Chapter objectives	36
4.2 Linguistic relativity	36
4.3 Health care in linguistically diverse societies	42

4.4	Communicative relativity	43
4.5	A language with a name	46
4.6	Key points	53
4.7	Further reading	54
4.8	Activities	54
5	Nation and Culture	57
5.1	Chapter objectives	57
5.2	Stereotypes	57
5.3	Banal nationalism	59
5.4	Intercultural communication advice	65
5.5	Globalisation and transnationalism	68
5.6	Key points	73
5.7	Further reading	73
5.8	Activities	74
6	Intercultural Communication at Work	76
6.1	Chapter objectives	76
6.2	National cultural values	77
6.3	Multinational corporations	84
6.4	Doing language and culture work	87
6.5	Challenges and future directions	91
6.6	Key points	93
6.7	Further reading	94
6.8	Activities	94
7	Intercultural Communication for Sale	96
7.1	Chapter objectives	96
7.2	Selling ethno-cultural stereotypes	97
7.3	English for sale	101
7.4	A global non-language?	104
7.5	Key points	108
7.6	Further reading	109
7.7	Activities	109
8	Intercultural Romance	111
8.1	Chapter objectives	111
8.2	Love goes global	111
8.3	Love makes the world go round	115
8.4	Mail-order bride websites	120
8.5	Key points	125

8.6	Further reading	126
8.7	Activities	126
9	Intercultural Communication and Exclusion	128
9.1	Chapter objectives	128
9.2	Racism in disguise	128
9.3	Jobs with accents	132
9.4	Enhancing access	137
9.5	Key points	141
9.6	Further reading	142
9.7	Activities	142
10	Intercultural Communication in a Multilingual World	144
10.1	Chapter objectives	144
10.2	Language proficiency	145
10.3	On being rendered speechless	147
10.4	Language matters	151
10.5	State language regimes	158
10.6	Commercial language regimes	163
10.7	Key points	168
10.8	Further reading	168
10.9	Activities	168
11	The Future of Intercultural Communication	171
11.1	Chapter objectives	171
11.2	The material base of intercultural communication	171
11.3	Shifting terrains	174
11.4	Social justice	174
11.5	The position of the researcher	176
11.6	Further reading	177
11.7	Activities	177
	References	179
	Index	194