

CONTENTS

List of Tables, Maps and Figures	x
List of Tables	x
List of Maps	x
List of Figures	xi
Abbreviations	xiv
Acknowledgements	xv
Note to Readers	xxiv
1. Clearing the Ground: Basic Issues, Concepts and Approaches	1
Rajend Mesthrie
1.1 Introduction	1
1.2 Relations between Language and Society	5
1.3 Prescriptivism	12
1.4 Standardisation	20
1.5 Speech vs Writing	26
1.6 Societies and Speech Communities	27
1.7 Monolingualism and Multilingualism	37
1.8 Conclusion	40
Notes	41
2. Regional Dialectology	42
Rajend Mesthrie
2.1 Introduction	42
2.2 A Multilingual Project: The Linguistic Survey of India	45
2.3 Monolingual Dialectology in Europe	47
2.4 Modern Approaches to Dialect	59
2.5 More Challenges for Dialectologists	68
2.6 Conclusion	71
Notes	72

3. Social Dialectology	74
Rajend Mesthrie
3.1 Introduction	74
3.2 Principles and Methods in Variationist Sociolinguistics: Three Case Studies	75
3.3 Fieldwork Methods in Variationist Sociolinguistics	89
3.4 A Closer Look at Stylistic and Social Categories	92
3.5 Sociolinguistics on Trial: An Application of Urban Dialectology	105
3.6 Conclusion	107
Notes	108
 4. Language Variation and Change	 109
Ana Deumert and Rajend Mesthrie
4.1 Introduction	109
4.2 Two Models of Language Change	110
4.3 Vernacular Maintenance and Change	121
4.4 New Approaches to Variation and Change: The Need for Integration	130
4.5 Vowel Shifts: Towards a Holistic Approach to Dialect and Change	136
4.6 Conclusion: The Limits of Variation Theory	144
Notes	145
 5. Language Choice and Code-switching	 146
Joan Swann
5.1 Introduction	146
5.2 Evaluation and Accommodation: Language Variation as Meaningful	147
5.3 Language Choice in Bilingual Communities	152
5.4 Code-switching in Bidialectal and Bilingual Communities	163
5.5 Code-switching and Style-shifting	177
5.6 Conclusion	182
Note	182
 6. Language in Interaction	 183
Joan Swann
6.1 Introduction	183
6.2 Speaking and Silence	185
6.3 Narratives	189
6.4 Conversation Management	195

6.5 Encoding Relationships	199
6.6 Asymmetrical Talk	201
6.7 Conclusion	211
7. Gender and Language Use	213
Joan Swann
7.1 Introduction	213
7.2 Women's and Men's Languages	214
7.3 Variationist Studies: Quantifying Gender	218
7.4 Gender in Interaction: 'Deficit', 'Dominance' and 'Difference'	225
7.5 Gender and Politeness	230
7.6 Contextualised Approaches: Performance and Performativity	233
7.7 Conclusion	240
Notes	241
8. Language Contact 1: Maintenance, Shift and Death	242
Rajend Mesthrie and William L. Leap
8.1 Introduction	242
8.2 Contact and Borrowing	243
8.3 Language Maintenance, Shift and Death	245
8.4 The Linguistics of Obsolescence	256
8.5 A Case Study: Language Contact, Maintenance and Shift among Native Americans	256
8.6 Saving Endangered Languages	265
8.7 Conclusion	269
Notes	270
9. Language Contact 2: Pidgins, Creoles and 'New Englishes'	271
Rajend Mesthrie
9.1 Introduction	271
9.2 Pidgins and Creoles	271
9.3 Pidgin Structures and Theories of Their Origin	281
9.4 Creole Structures and Theories of Their Origin	287
9.5 Language Spread and 'New' Varieties of English	296
9.6 Conclusion	307
Notes	307
10. Critical Sociolinguistics: Approaches to Language and Power	309
Rajend Mesthrie (with contributions by Ana Deumert)
10.1 Introduction	309

10.2 Power	310
10.3 Critical Discourse Analysis	312
10.4 Critical Language Awareness in Action	318
10.5 Resistance to Powerful Language	325
10.6 Sociolinguistics and Symbolic Power: The Work of Pierre Bourdieu	333
10.7 Conclusion	342
Notes	342
11. Sociolinguistics and Education	344
Rajend Mesthrie and William L. Leap
11.1 Introduction	344
11.2 Teaching, Learning and Schooling	345
11.3 Disadvantage and Classroom Language	351
11.4 Dialect and Language Choice in the Classroom	357
11.5 Conclusion	369
Notes	370
12. Language Planning and Policy	371
Ana Deumert
12.1 Introduction	371
12.2 Dimensions of Language Planning	372
12.3 The Process of Language Planning	375
12.4 The Rational Choice Model and Its Critics	380
12.5 The Question of Acceptance	386
12.6 Language Planning, Power and Ideology	387
12.7 Two Case Studies: Norway and South Africa	393
12.8 Conclusion	405
Notes	405
13. The Sociolinguistics of Sign Language	407
Ana Deumert
13.1 Introduction	407
13.2 Some Aspects of the Structure of Sign Languages and other Sign Systems	408
13.3 The Deaf Community as a Linguistic Minority	412
13.4 Sign Language and Education	417
13.5 Language Contact, Diglossia and Code-switching	421
13.6 Sociolinguistic Variation in Sign Language	427
13.7 'Everyone Here Spoke Sign Language': Martha's Vineyard Revisited	436
13.8 Conclusion	439
Notes	439

Map 2.3	Places in Britain	60
Epilogue	Recruiting parties	440
Further Reading	Books of the 19th century	445
Next Steps	US places cited in the book	449
Bibliography	US places cited in the book	450
Glossary	Areas studied by the author	488
Index	Districts of Boston	491