

CONTENTS

---

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	vii
------------------	-----

PREFACE	ix
---------	----

I. Representations of Literary History

Strategy of Representations in Literary Texts	3
---	---

Vladimír Papoušek

Transformations of Imagination and its	29
--	----

Textual Representations
-------------------------	--

Vladimír Papoušek

Canon, Canonicity and Canonization as	45
---------------------------------------	----

Constructs of Literary History
--------------------------------	--

Petr A. Bilek

Greenblatt's Conception of "New History" and	57
--	----

the Issues of Literary History
--------------------------------	--

Vladimír Papoušek

Representation, Performance of History and	73
--	----

Current Literary Scholarship
------------------------------	--

Vladimír Papoušek

II. Representations in Czech Literature: Case Studies

The East, West, and the Center of Europe as	89
---	----

Cultural Concepts, Emblems, and Vehicles of
---	--

Creative Misunderstanding
---------------------------	--

Petr A. Bilek

The Horizon that Disappeared and Reappeared: The Image of Austria-Hungary in the Literature of Czech Immigrants in America Vladimír Papoušek	117
Constructing the Paradoxical Middle: Conceptualizations of Central Europe Explored in the 1980s Essayistic Debates Petr A. Bilek	133
Immortalized Leaders: Literary Representations of Joseph Vissarionovich Stalin and Klement Gottwald Produced by Official Czech Culture as a Response to Their Deaths Petr A. Bilek	145
The Discourse on August 1968 and Czech History in Two Exile Generations Vladimír Papoušek	161
The “Exile” as a Concept of Permanent Mediation and Misunderstanding: Perception of Czech Exile Literature of 1970s and 1980s Petr A. Bilek	171
A Journey of a Name from the Realm of Reference to the Realm of Meaning: The Reception of Milan Kundera within the Czech Cultural Context Petr A. Bilek	183
REFERENCES	205