

Contents

List of Illustrative Material

Introduction

- Why European politics? xiii
- Why this book? xiii
- Keeping it real – and up to date xiv
- Where is it going? xv
- Getting started xvii

Guide to Text Features

1 Europe – a continent in the making

- People into empires 1
- Empires into nations 2
- Nations into states 4
- States into blocs 4
- The new Europe 6
- Europe's economy – rich in variation 10
- Regions 10
- 'Postindustrialism'? 13
- Transition 13
- Globalization and/or Europeanization? 14
- National and patterned variation 16
- Whatever happened to 'the classless society'? 17
- Women – working but not yet winning? 21
- In theory if not in practice – religion in Europe 25
- Composition and identity: multi-ethnic, multinational – and European? 28
- Learning resources 32
- Discussion questions 37

2 The end of the nation state?

- Stateless nations 39
- Belgium – federal solution or slippery slope? 40
- 'Asymmetrical' federalism – Spain 42
- The UK – another hybrid 45
- France – no longer quite so indivisible 49
- The EU and the end of sovereignty? 51
- Origins, enlargement and institutions 53
- Integration via economics and law 53
- Tidying-up exercise or step towards a super-state? The Lisbon Treaty 62

- The end of the nation state? 64
- Learning resources 69
- Discussion questions 70

3 From government to governance – running the state, making policy and policing the constitution

- Passing power downwards – decentralization 71
- 'More control over less' – central government reform 72
- Policymaking – sectors and styles 78
- The booming third branch of government – the judicialization of politics 86
- Learning resources 92
- Discussion questions 103

4 Governments and parliaments – a long way from equality

- The head of state 105
- Prime minister, cabinet and parliamentary government 106
- Permutations of parliamentary government in multiparty systems 108
- Minimal (connected) winning coalitions 111
- Minority governments 113
- Oversized or surplus majority coalitions 113
- Government duration and stability 116
- Dividing the spoils – 'portfolio allocation' 118
- Governing 119
- Parliaments – one house or two? 120
- Parliaments – hiring and firing 124
- Parliaments – the production of law 126
- Parliaments – scrutiny and oversight 128
- Parliament and government – the European level 132
- Parliament, power and parties 134
- Europe's unrepresentative representatives? 136
- Learning resources 137
- Discussion questions 141

5 Parties – how the past affects the present, and an uncertain future 143

What are parties, and what are they for?	143
Organization	144
Party systems and party families	150
Socialist and social democratic parties	154
Conservative parties	156
Christian democratic parties	156
Liberal parties	159
Green parties	160
Far-right parties	162
Communist and left parties	163
Regional and ethnic parties	167
Agrarian and centre parties	167
The bases of party systems – social and institutional; luck and skill	167
Party system change?	171
Are parties in decline?	175
The Europeanization of parties and party systems?	181
Parties as doers, not simply done to	184
Learning resources	185
Discussion questions	186

6 Elections, voting and referendums – systems, turnout, preferences and unpredictability 187

Europe's myriad electoral systems	188
Plurality and majority systems	189
PR systems	190
PR's subtleties and sophistications	192
Electoral systems and party systems	194
Turnout – decline and variation	196
Volatile voting	200
Preferences – what makes people vote the way they do?	201
Left–right and party ID	202
The 'end of class voting' and the rise of values?	203
Religion – another death announced prematurely?	206
Other social characteristics – ethnicity, gender, and geographic location	210
Issue- voting, retrospective judgements and leadership	211
EP elections	214
Direct democracy – useful tool or dangerous panacea?	215
Learning resources	222
Discussion questions	223

7 The media – player and recorder 224

Variations in usage and style	224
Structure and regulation	228
State and public service broadcasting	230
The connection between media systems and political systems	234
The changing coverage of politics	236
From 'party logic' to 'media logic'	238
'Disdaining the news', or at least the parties	244
Bias and its effects	244
Pressure groups and populists	250
A brave new digital world?	250
'Overseas' news – one world; different pictures	254
The media and 'Europe'	254
Women and the media in Europe	254
Learning resources	260
Discussion questions	260

8 Participation and pressure politics – civil society, organized interests and social movements 261

Participation – the expanding, but not necessarily alternative, repertoire	261
Pressure groups – different types, different opportunities	264
Pluralism, corporatism and policy networks	268
Farming – a real-world example of power under pressure	270
There is (still) power in a union	270
Taking care of business	270
Rebels with a cause? NGOs and (new) social movements	274
'Venue shopping' and the Europeanization of pressure politics	280
Learning resources	280
Discussion questions	280

9 Politics over markets: does politics – and left and right – still matter? 281

Has politics ever really mattered?	281
Drifting to the right? The centre left in Europe	281
Party positions on the welfare state – words and deeds	281
Privatization	300
Flexible labour markets?	300

The EU to the rescue?	314	No use wishing it away	361
Beyond welfare – and left and right	319	Learning resources	362
Why it still makes sense to be different	322	Discussion questions	363
Learning resources	325
Discussion questions	326
10 Not wanted, but needed – migrants and minorities 327		11 Protecting and promoting – Europe's international politics 364
Migration into Europe – then and now	328	Security and defence – the background	365
Europe's immigrants – grim realities and perceptions	331	'Old' and 'New' Europe?	366
Illegal immigration	334	Still 'the German Question'	368
Asylum seeking	335	Russia – Eurasia's (ex-?) superpower	369
Intra-EU migration since enlargement	337	Europe's Mediterranean 'neighbours'	375
The new stereotype – migrants and minorities as terrorists	338	Towards a European army?	377
Political responses – populism, priming and 'catch-22s'	338	Foreign policy	380
Integrating and protecting migrants and minorities	350	Europe in the developing world	384
Policy responses – towards 'Fortress Europe'?	352	Europe and the global environment	387
The Roma – Europe's oldest ethnic minority	359	Europe as a global trader	389
		Lest we forget – the enlargement and domestication of international politics	391
		Learning resources	395
		Discussion questions	396
		References 397
		Index 442	