

Inhalt

Introduction	9
DIETER SEGERT
Actors, opportunities and obstacles in civic education and democratisation in the Eastern Partnership countries	11
Civil society and political education in the democratisation process in the Eastern Europe after 1989	25
HANS-JÜRGEN MISSELWITZ
Civic education in an era of social transformation	27
KRZYSZTOF KACUGA
Civic education in schools in the light of Poland's integration in the European Union	45
MATTHIAS FREISE
From boom to consolidation: directions in the development of civil society in East Central Europe	55
Civil society and the new media in the South Caucasus	67
YEVGENYA JENNY PATURYAN
Armenian civil society: it's not all about NGOs	69
RASHAD SHIRINOV
Civil society in Azerbaijan: testing alternative theories	76
LIA TSULADZE
Civic engagement via social media in Georgia	83

Civil society as an actor of political education in Ukraine	89
SUSAN STEWART
Civil society in Ukraine: structure, environment and developmental trends	91
SUSANN WORSCHECH
From Maidan to the parliament, from Maidan to the provinces: new paths for Ukrainian civil society	98
TATIANA ZHURZHENKO
Memory wars in post-Soviet Kharkiv	102
SERGIU MUSTEATĂ
The history of teaching in Ukraine: two decades of public, academic and political debates	123
Relations between state and civil society actors in Russia, Ukraine and Belarus	139
DMYTRO MYESHKOV
Politics of history in Ukraine since the change of government in the spring of 2014	141
KONSTANTIN KEHL / BENJAMIN KUMMER / VOLKER THEN
How can Russian civil society be supported in turbulent times? Responses from a stakeholder survey	151
JUSSI LASSILA
Pitfalls of the Kremlin's vox populi: the Russian People's Front	162
BERTELSMANN FOUNDATION
Belarus country report	170
PAULA BOROWSKA
Non-formal education in Belarus: unleashing the potential of civil society	174