

CONTENTS

Preface	8
---------------	---

I. Part

GENERAL ISSUES RELATED TO OBTAINING THE RELEVANT INFORMATION IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

1 The Theoretical Basis for Obtaining Relevant Information in Criminal Proceedings	10
2 Historical Context of Evidentiary Process in Criminal Proceedings	34
2.1 Political and Liberal Reformism and Its Consequences in Criminal Procedural Law.....	38
2.1.1 Principle of Legality	39
2.1.2 Principle of Guilt and the Presumption of Innocence	41
2.1.2.1 Principle of Guilt: Some Concepts and Categories	41
2.1.2.2 The Presumption of Innocence in the Historical Context	43
2.2 Criminal Evidence and Historical Context in the Conditions of the Slovak Republic	50
2.2.1 The Legal Roots of Evidentiary Process	54
3 The Fundamental Principles of Evidentiary Process	62
3.1 Criminal Procedure and Its Fundamental Principles	64
3.2 Concept, Importance and System of Fundamental Principles of Criminal Procedure in Evidentiary Process	67
3.2.1 The Fundamental Principles of Criminal Procedure in Evidentiary Process	75
3.3 Principle of Presumption of Innocence	83
3.4 Principle of Investigation	85
3.5 Principle of Direct Proceedings and Principle of Oral Proceedings	87
3.6 Principle of Free Evaluation of Evidence	90
3.7 Principle of Adversarial Proceedings	93

4	The Subject Matter of Evidentiary Process, Its Stages and Evaluation of Evidence	96
4.1	The Subject Matter of Evidentiary Process	96
4.2	Stages of the Evidentiary Process	99
4.3	Practical Problems Related to the Evaluation of Evidences	103
4.3.1	The Problem of Evaluation of „Private Evidence”	104
4.3.2	The Problem of Evaluation of Testimony of Suspected Person	113
4.3.2.1	The Evaluation of the Testimony of Suspected Detained Person	113
4.3.2.2	The Evaluation of Testimony of Suspected Person – Witness	118
4.3.3	The Problem of Evaluation of Testimony of the Cooperating Accused	119

II. Part

PARTICULAR MEANS OF OBTAINING THE RELEVANT INFORMATION IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

5	The Interrogation of the Accused Person in the Criminal Procedure	122
5.1	The Interrogation of the Suspect Person	122
5.2	The Interrogation of the Accused Person According to European Legal Standards	126
5.3	Legal Standards of the Interrogation of the Accused Person in USA	134
5.4	Particularities of the Interrogation of the Collaborating Accused Person	138
6	Interrogation of a Witness	140
6.1	Definition and the Fundamental Rights and Obligations of the Witness	140
6.2	The Process of Interrogation of Witness.....	147
6.3	The Interrogation of a Witness Younger Than 18 Years of Age	150
6.4	Interrogation of a Witness versus the Principle of Contradictory	152
6.4.1	The Non-Contradictory Interrogation of a Witness Before the Accusation Has Been Made	154

6.4.2	The Non-Contradictory Interrogation of a Witness After the Accusation Has Been Made	168
7	Expert and Specialist Activity in Criminal Proceedings	170
7.1	Legal Characteristic of the Status of an Expert and Activity of Specialist in Criminal Proceedings	170
7.2	Rights and Duties of an Expert in Criminal Proceedings	172
7.3	Calling an Expert and Specialist in Criminal Proceedings	174
7.3.1	Procedure for Calling an Expert by the Law Enforcement and Judicial Authorities	174
7.3.2	The Method of Calling the Expert by the law Enforcement and Judicial Authorities	175
7.3.3	Expert Called by the Process Party	177
7.4	Legal Liability of an Expert in Criminal Proceedings	179
7.5	Performance of Expert and Activity of Specialist in Criminal Proceedings	179
7.5.1	Expert Activity	180
7.5.1.1	Preparation, Processing and Submission of an Expert	180
7.5.1.2	Formal and Content Requirements of an Expert Report	185
7.5.1.3	Evaluation of Expert Report as Evidence Carried Out by Expert	189
7.6	Expert Status in the European Judicial System	192
8	Information-Technical Means	198
8.1	The Making of Visual, Acoustic or Visual-Acoustic Records	198
8.2	The Tapping and the Record of the Telecommunications Operation	204
8.3	The Announcement of the Telecommunication Operation Data	216
9	Means of the Operative-Investigation Activity	219
9.1	Tracking of Persons and Things	219
9.2	The Agent	226
9.2.1	Legal Conditions of the Use of the Agent	226
9.2.2	The Provocation by the Police	230

9.2.3	The Interrogation of the Agent in the Criminal Proceedings	240
9.2.4	Task of the Agent as the Circumstance Excluding the Unlawfulness	243
9.3	Other Means of Operative-Investigation Activity	245
10	Other Means of Proof	248
10.1	Inspection	248
10.1.1	Kinds of Inspection	250
10.1.2	Inspecting Authorities	253
10.1.3	Documentation of the Inspection	253
10.2	Searching	254
10.2.1	Types of Searching	255
10.3	Recognition	256
10.4	Reconstruction	258
10.4.1	Types of Reconstruction	259
10.4.1.1	Situational Reconstruction	259
10.4.1.2	Subject Reconstruction	260
10.4.1.3	Portrait Reconstruction	260
10.4.1.4	Reconstruction of the Crime	261
10.4.2	Tactical Procedures for Executing the Reconstruction of the Crime	261
10.4.3	Evaluation of the Results of Reconstruction of the Crime	262
10.5	Investigation Experiment	262
10.5.1	Types of Investigation Experiment	264
10.5.2	Executing of the Investigation Experiment	265
10.5.3	Evaluation of the Progress and Results of the Investigative Experiment	266
10.6	The Crime Scene Verification	266
10.6.1	Documentation of Crime Scene Verification	269
10.6.2	Evaluate the Course and Results of the Crime Scene Verification	270
10.7	Documentary and Material Evidence	270

11 Obtaining the Relevant Information within the Sphere of Judicial Cooperation in Criminal Matters 272

11.1 Definition of Fundamental Terms 272

11.1.1 The Principle of Mutual Recognition 274

11.1.2 The Principle of Mutual Trust 281

11.2 The European Investigation Order 286

11.2.1 Introduction 286

11.2.2 Legal Definitions and Scope of Application 291

11.2.3 Time Limits and Grounds for Refusal 294

11.2.4 The Process of Issuing an EIO 298

11.2.5 The Process of Executing an EIO 299

Bibliography 302

Authors 320

Index 321