

Contents

List of figures and tables	vii
List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgment	x
1 Introduction Daniel Bonilla Maldonado and Colin Crawford	1
PART I THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN LATIN AMERICAN AND U.S. CONSTITUTIONALISM
2 The political economy of legal knowledge Daniel Bonilla Maldonado	29
3 The geopolitics of constitutionalism in Latin America Jorge L. Esquirol	79
PART II LATIN AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONALISM
4 Constitutionalism in the Americas: a comparison between the U.S. and Latin America Roberto Gargarella	111
5 Back to the future? The return of sovereignty and the principle of non-intervention in the internal affairs of the states in Latin America's "radical constitutionalism" Javier Couso	140
6 Constitutionalism old, new and unbound: the case of Mexico Francisca Pou Giménez	155
7 Socioeconomic rights and majoritarian courts in Latin America David Landau	188

PART III U.S. CONSTITUTIONALISM IN THE 21ST CENTURY

8	Constitutional drafting in Latin America: a quantitative perspective	217
	David S. Law and Tom Ginsburg
9	The global diffusion of U.S. legal thought: changing influence, national security and legal education in crisis	240
	Fernanda Nicola
10	The limits of U.S. racial equality without a Latin American constitutional “right to work” – a thought experiment	258
	Tanya Katerí Hernández
	Name index	287
	Subject index	288