

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1 THE CONCEPT AND DEFINITION OF SUPERVISION	6
1.1 The history of supervision	7
1.2 Supervision around the world	8
2 THE SUPERVISION PROCESS	10
2.1 Approaches to supervision	11
2.2 Supervisory relationship	12
2.3 Supervisory contract	14
2.4 Forms of supervision	15
2.5 Supervisory agents	17
2.6 Supervision techniques	18
2.7 Supervisor Personality	20
3 SUPERVISION IN SOCIAL SERVICES	24
3.1 The importance of supervision in social work	24
3.2 Social services in the Slovak Republic and the Czech Republic in relation to the supervisory activity	29
3.3 Variety of problems to be addressed by supervision	31
4 RISKS ENDANGERING SOCIAL WORKERS	36
4.1 Risks arising from the work environment	36
4.2 Risks arising from the nature of the employment	38
4.3 Risks resulting from personality traits	43
4.4 Psychological problems of social workers resulting from risks	43
5 SELF-REFLECTION AND ATTITUDES	48
5.1 Definition of self-reflection	48
5.1.1 The concept of reflection	48
5.1.2 Self-reflection as a psychological characteristic	49
5.1.3 Wider concept of self-reflection	49
5.1.4 The concept of attitude	50
5.1.5 Dimensions of Attitudes	51
5.1.6 Attitudes, values, opinions	52
BIBLIOGRAPHY	54
NAME REGISTER	59
THE LIST OF IMAGES	61
SUMMARY	62