

Contents

List of figures and tables		v
List of abbreviations		vii
Notes on contributors		ix
Acknowledgements		xiii
one	Introduction: much work still to do Peter Moss, Alison Koslowski and Ann-Zofie Duvander	1 Part I: Recent developments and the politics of leave policy two	Spain: leave policy in times of economic crisis Gerardo Meil, Pedro Romero-Balsas and Jesús Rogero-García	21 three	Poland: leave policy and the process and goals of a major reform Anna Kurowska	39
four	United Kingdom: leave policy and an attempt to take a new path Peter Moss and Margaret O'Brien	57 five	Israel: leave policy, familialism and the neoliberal welfare state Nadav Perez-Vaisvidovsky	75
six	Japan: leave policy and attempts to increase fathers' take-up Hideki Nakazato	91
seven	China: leave and population policies Shirley Gatenio Gabel, Wen-Jui Han and Xiaoran Wang	111 eight	Mexico: leave policy, co-responsibility in childcare and informal employment Cándido Pérez-Hernández and Anna Escobedo	129
nine	United States: leave policy, failure and potential Gayle Kaufman	147

Part II: Some current issues in leave policy ten	What do people want? Leave policy preferences in different countries Isabel Valarino	167 eleven	Gender equality: Parental Leave design and evaluating its effects on fathers' participation Ann-Zofie Duvander, Guðný Björk Eydal, Berit Brandth, Ingólfur V. Gíslason, Johanna Lammi-Taskula and Tine Rostgaard	187 twelve	Flexibility: some consequences for fathers' caregiving Berit Brandth and Elin Kvande	205 thirteen	The workplace: challenges for fathers and their use of leave Valérie Harvey and Diane-Gabrielle Tremblay	223 fourteen	Care-work policies: conceptualising leave within a broader framework Sara Mazzucchelli, Luca Pesenti and M. Letizia Bosoni	241 fifteen	A social right? Access to leave and its relation to parents' labour market position Ivana Dobroti and Sonja Blum	261

Part III: Future directions for leave policy sixteen	Universal Basic Income: what could it mean for gender equality in care work? Alison Koslowski	283 seventeen	The time credit system: the panacea for a life course approach? Laura Merla and Fred Deven	299
eighteen	Towards a multi-active society: daring to imagine a new work-life regime Bernard Fusulier and Chantal Nicole-Drancourt	315
nineteen	Reimagining Parental Leave: a conceptual 'thought experiment' Andrea Doucet, Lindsey McKay, and Sophie Mathieu	333
twenty	Parental Leave and beyond: recent international developments, current issues and future directions Alison Koslowski, Ann-Zofie Duvander, and Peter Moss	353
	Index	371