

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
1 Existential crisis, the possibility of disintegration, and the European Union in the 2010s	7
The rise of an existential crisis: the economic factors	7
Migration crisis and its connection with Europe's demographic crisis	11
Terror attacks	14
Populist attacks against the EU	16
Recognition of the existential crisis	17
The outside factor: loosening alliances and hostile neighbors	19
Deep crisis is over, but are new ones coming?	20
Escaping forward?	23
2 Inequalities within and among member countries undermined homogenization and became a source of discontents	27
Capitalism and inequality	27
Increasing inequality within the EU countries	28
Inequality among member countries of the EU	29
3 The political representation of discontent: disappearing traditional political parties and rising populism	40
From class to national parties	40
Old mass parties are disappearing	40
Melting down of the social democratic parties	41
Rising populist parties	44
Central political issues for populists	47

4	Brexit and its possible impact	52
	Joining late—leaving early 52
	“Hard” or “soft” landing? The Chequers plan 55
	The consequences of Brexit 56
5	Anti-European Union populism in Western and Southern Europe	59
	Liberal democracy and its multiethnic culture 59
	Why populism became triumphant in Britain 63
	Wilders, Le Pen, and others 66
	Populist defeats and victories, 2017–18 70
6	Populism flooded Eastern Europe and the Balkans—undermining the EU	74
	A real home for populism 74
	The eastern part of Germany 77
	The region left behind 78
	The reverse migration crisis of the region 81
	The crisis of 2008 and austerity policy—authoritarian nationalism 84
7	Christian Europe? The use and abuse of Christian values and the populist debate	94
	Populism and Christianity 94
	A special feature of East European nationalist interpretations of Christianity 96
	What are Christian values, and how do they influence European life? 97
	Pope Francis’s differing interpretation of Christian Europe 98
8	The demonization of George Soros and its real meaning in Central and Eastern Europe	101
	Right-wing anti-Soros hysteria all over 101
	Putin’s Russia gave the signal 102
	“Let’s not leave Soros the last laugh” 103
	Anti-Soros mania in Eastern Europe 106
	Soros’s view on immigration in Europe 106
	The “Secret Message” of anti-Soros hysteria 107
9	Is the European Union a neoliberal construction that deserves to be destroyed? A debate with left-wing attacks	111
	Does attacking the EU equate to anti-neoliberalism? 111
	Globalization or regionalization? 112

End of globalization? The increasing importance of regionalization	114
Austerity policy as exploitation of peripheral countries?	115
Serving the oligarchs?	116
The straitjacket of euro and national sovereignty	118
Real causes of revolt: social shock caused by complex societal changes	118
10 Outside discontents: the weakening alliance with the US, a hostile Russia, and Turkey and China at the borders	122
A loosening alliance with the US	122
The failure to keep Turkey in the EU's orbit	128
The failure of the Balkans' policy toward the EU	130
The failure of the EU's southern and eastern neighborhood policies	134
Russia against the EU: its counter attacks and provocations	140
Europe's dangerous oil dependence on Russia and the EU's plans to eliminate it	144
China is entering the ring: the Balkan Silk Road	146
11 Out from crisis or between crises? The EU of the future	155
Steps of further integration: the road toward a fiscal and banking union	155
First steps toward a European army	161
Alternatives for further integration	167
Plans for the future of Europe	169
Index	179