

Contents

Introduction	vii
Bryan E. Bannon

Part I: Phenomenology of Nature

1	Mythic Enlightenment: Phenomenology and the Question Concerning Nature	3
	Bryan Smyth
2	Towards a Phenomenology of Nature	17
	Janet Donohoe
3	Natural Phenomena: The Birth and Growth of Experience	31
	Tom Greaves
4	Phenomenology and the Charge of Anthropocentrism	43
	Simon P. James
5	Nature, Meaning and Value	53
	Bryan E. Bannon

Part II: Metaphor, Agency, and the Human Relation to Nature

6	Intersubjectivity, the Environment and Moral Failure	69
	Mark Thorsby
7	Metaphor and Weather: Thinking Ecologically about Metaphor, Experience, and Climate	81
	Elise Springer
8	Ecofeminism, Ecophenomenology and the Metaphorics of Nature's Agency	97
	Tim Christion
9	Re-Rivering Environmental Imagination: Meander Movement and Merleau-Ponty	113
	Irene J. Klaver

Part III: Practicing Phenomenology

10	Paradigms, Praxis and Environmental Phenomenology	129
	Ingrid Leman Stefanovic, Zachary Shefman and Kristina Welch

11	Re-appropriating the Ecosystem Services Concept for a Decolonization of 'Nature'	143
	Barbara Muraca
12	Indigenous Experience, Environmental Justice and Settler Colonialism	157
	Kyle Powys Whyte
13	Music and the Presence of Nature	175
	David E. Cooper
14	Phenomenological Aesthetics of Landscape and Beauty	187
	Guðbjörg Rannveig Jóhannesdóttir
	References	201
	Index	217
	About the Contributors	221