Oneness is not a concept. It is a reality.
Differences can only be on the surface,
You don't need an effort to bring oneness.
All that you need is to wake up and recognize.
Every celebration happens when you recognize the abundance that life has provided you.
Only when you're grateful can you celebrate.
And to be grateful, all that you need is only a simple recognition!

-His Holiness Sri Sri Ravi Shankar

Dedicated to H.H. Sri Sri Ravi Shankar, who exemplifies ancient wisdom
and unconditional love.
