

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Foreword by David Cesarani | vii |
| Preface | xi |
| Notes on Contributors | xv |
| Introduction: Four Debates and Little Dissent Georg Kreis | 1 |
| 1 Foreign Trade and Swiss Politics, 1939–45 Marc Perrenoud | 26 |
| 2 Switzerland's International Financial Relations, 1931–50 Jakob Tanner | 42 |
| 3 German Gold – Allied Gold, 1940–45 Philippe Marguerat | 69 |
| 4 Unclaimed Assets of Nazi Victims in Switzerland: What People Knew and What Else They Ought to Know Peter Hug | 81 |
| 5 Swiss Refugee Policy, 1933–45 Georg Kreis | 103 |
| 6 Investigating 'Anti-Semitism'?: On the Concept and Function of 'Anti-Semitism' and Problems Involved in Research Jacques Picard | 132 |
| 7 Pilet-Golaz and the Making of Swiss Foreign Policy: Some Remarks Neville Wylie | 158 |
| 8 'Neither this Way nor any Other': Swiss Internationalism during the Second World War Madeleine Herren | 171 |
| 9 The Military National Defence, 1939–45 Rudolf Jaun | 194 |

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 10 | Political and Humanitarian Resistance in Switzerland, 1939–45 André Lasserre | 212 |
| 11 | ‘Spiritual National Defence’ in the 1930s: Swiss Political Culture between the Wars Josef Mooser | 236 |
| 12 | Swiss Memory of the Second World War in the immediate Post-War Period, 1945–48 Luc van Dongen | 261 |
| 13 | The 1946 National Public Opinion Survey as a Democratic Challenge Niklaus Stettler | 282 |
| 14 | Governmental Malaise with History: From the White Paper to the Bonjour Report Sacha Zala | 312 |
| 15 | Lest We Forget. Switzerland and the Second World War: The Sources Andreas Kellerhals-Maeder | 333 |
| 16 | On the Role of the ‘Swiss Independent Expert Commission on the Second World War’ Jean-François Bergier | 353 |
| | Postscript | 362 |
| | Index | 365 |