

Table of Contents

Preface
Bob Bonwitt..... 9

Section I:
Policy-Making and Policy Performance: Governance Reform in Central and Eastern Europe: Discourse, Political Interests and Institutional Determinants

Introduction
Izabella Barati-Stec ..... 23

Policy-making in Central and Eastern Europe: A Cross-Sectional Sector Perspective.
Lars Johannsen and Ole Norgaard..... 27

Multi-level Governance in Post-Communist Conditions: Challenges in Governability for the New EU Member States
Krzysztof Szczerski ..... 49

The Governance Discourse in Three Countries. A Comparison of Administrative Reform Activities in Finland, Estonia and Russia
Markku Temmes, B. Guy Peters and Georg Sootla..... 66

The Territorial–Administrative Reform in Moldova: How Different
Political Interests and Groups Influences Public Policies
Valeriu Mosneaga and Valerian Tabirta..... 83

Central – Local Politico-Administrative and Governance
Relationships in Two Ukrainian Cities: Kyiv and Odessa
Natalya Kolisnichenko and Allan Rosenbaum ..... 101

The Role of Experts in Local Government in Transitional Countries
Michiel S. de de Vries – Iwona Sobis ..... 119

The Use of Socio-Legal Information in the Draft Acts’ Explanatory
Memoranda: A Pre-condition for Good Governance
Aare Kasemets and Mari-Liis Liiv ..... 142

Governing by Default: Failures of Policy Process in Romania
Sorin Ionita..... 166

The Policy-Making Process: Experience in Bulgarian Administrative Reform
Mina Shoylekova..... 193

The Case of STRATEK: Development of an Organizational Unit at the Prime Minister's Office in Hungary for Enhancing Strategic Leadership László Vass .....	214
Strategic Orientation in Hungarian Central Government Organisations: The Role of Organisational Culture György Hajnal .....	237

Section II:

The Personal Factor: Educating and Training Civil Servants for Better Public Administration

Introduction Alexei Barabasev .....	257
Quality of Expertise: Securing Common Knowledge and Competencies of Public Servants in Decentralised Public Service Training Systems. The Case of Estonian Civil Service. Kristiina Tonnisson, Kaido Paabusk .....	262
Public Administration Education in Macedonia: Accelerating the Process Philip Murphy, Jacqueline Saslawski, Veli Kreci and Ivica Bocevski .....	279
Multiculturalism in the Regional Civil Service in Russia (the case of Saratov region) Victoria K. Antonova .....	294

Section III:

Providing a Moral Common Ground: Fighting Corruption in the New Member States

Introduction Frits Van den Berg, Henriette F. Schatz .....	313
Preventing Corruption and Conflict of Interest: Necessity or Fashion? The Case of Poland Patrycja Joanna Suwaj .....	318
How to Fight Corruption with Particular Reference to the New EU Member Countries Olga Vidlakova .....	345

Transparency and Integrity of Public Administration (The Phenomenon of Corruption and Its Perception)
Mihaela Carausan .....	357

Section IV:

Governance and Policy Implementation in the Context of the European Union: The Management of EU Structural Funds

Introduction
Frans Grobbe, Frits van den Berg .....	375
The Capacities of New Member States to Manage EU Funds: From Absorption to Value-Added
Vitalis Nakrosis .....	381
EU Membership and Growing Regional Disparities: Poland's Strategy Options to Optimise Structural Transfers from the Union
Andrei I.Lobatch .....	394
The Failure of the EU Regional Policy in Estonia? Administration and Control Mechanisms of the Use of EU Funds in Local Governments of New Member States (NMS): The Case of Estonia
Tanel Oppi and Erik Moora .....	416
The Problem of So-Called Readiness as the Determinant of the Effective Absorption of Structural Funds, Based on the Example of the Podlaskie Region in Poland
Anna Daszuta .....	433
EU Funds: Absorption Capacity and Effectiveness of Their Use, With Focus on Regional Level in the Czech Republic
Markéta Šumpíková, Jan Pavel, Stanislav Klazar, Oto Potluka .....	450

Appendix

Alena Brunovská Award Lecture
Public Policy: Bridge over Troubled Water?
Martin Potůček .....	487
About the Authors .....	493
Index .....	499