

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

1. Introduction 1

Alan Altshuler

PART ONE United States

2. Reimagining and Reconfiguring Streets in New York City 27

David Luberoff

3. Coalition Politics and Expansion of the Transit System in Los Angeles 62

David Luberoff

4. Commercial Ride-Sharing: From “Rogue” to Mainstream
in San Francisco 94

Onesimo Flores Dewey and Lisa Rayle

PART TWO Emerging Democracies

5. From Jitneys to Bus Rapid Transit: Negotiating Change in Mexico City 131

Onesimo Flores Dewey

6. Transportation Reform and the Transformation of Central Seoul 158

Onesimo Flores Dewey

PART THREE Western Europe

7. Congestion Charging in Stockholm 187

Diane E. Davis and Amy Rader Olsson

8. Complementary Strategies to Reduce Car Dependence in Vienna 215

Ralph Buehler, John Pucher, and Alan Altshuler

9. From City Streets to Metropolitan Scale in Paris and the Île-de-France
Region 251
Charlotte Halpern and Patrick Le Galès

Conclusion 279

10. Urban Transport and Transformative Change: Reflections on the Relationships Between Processes and Outcomes 281
Diane E. Davis

Contributing Authors and Advisory Board Members 305
Index 311