

Contents

Introduction	1
1 The Subject and Object of the Book	1

PART ONE—THE MEDIEVAL FOUNDATIONS OF MODERN PRIVATE LAW

2 The Origins of European Legal Culture	13
Excursus: The Idea of Continuity	25
3 The Beginnings of European Legal Science	28
4 Canon Law and its Influence on Secular Law	47
5 The Development of Medieval Legal Science: The Commentators	55

PART TWO—THE RECEPTION OF ROMAN LAW IN GERMANY

6 Law in Germany on the Eve of the Reception	71
7 The Causes and Conditions of the Reception of Secular Law in Germany	91
8 Secular Lawyers in Germany	113
9 Legal Literature at the Time of the Reception	127
10 The Advance of Learned Law in the Courts	132
11 Legislation in the Age of the Reception	143

PART THREE—THE USUS MODERNUS AND THE CONCLUSION OF THE RECEPTION

12 The Usus Modernus	159
13 The Jurists of the Usus Modernus	168
14 The Reception and the Usus Modernus—a Balance-sheet	176

PART FOUR—THE AGE OF THE LAW OF REASON

15 The Foundations	199
16 Precursors and Founders of the Law of Reason	222
17 The Systematizers of the Law of Reason	239
18 The Law of Reason and the Enlightenment	249
19 The Natural Law Codes	257

PART FIVE—THE HISTORICAL SCHOOL OF LAW, PANDECTISM AND POSITIVISM IN THE NATION-STATE

20	The Origins of the Historical School	279
21	Precursors and Leaders of the Historical School of Law	300
22	The Discovery of Legal History	330
23	Pandectism and Positive Legal Science	341
24	From Scholarly Positivism to Textual Positivism	363
25	The German Civil Code (BGB)	371
	Excursus—On the Question of the General Part	385
26	The Swiss Civil Code, and European Legal Families in the Twentieth Century	387

PART SIX—PRIVATE LAW AND POSITIVISM IN CRISIS

27	The Development of German Private Law	409
28	Social Law and the Disintegration of Private Law	431
29	The Degeneration of Positivism, and Legal Naturalism	442
30	The Search for Justice	463
	The Outlook	484
	List of Abbreviations	489
	Index of Persons	491
	General Index	499