

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Series preface	xi
Preface	xiii
1 EU citizenship and civil rights: an underexplored nexus Henri de Waele and Marie-Pierre Granger	1
PART I FRAMEWORKS
2 Post-Lisbon civil rights protection by the EU's political institutions John Morijn	14
3 Securing private actors' respect for civil rights within the EU: actual and potential horizontal effects of instruments Sybe de Vries	43
4 The role of civil society organisations Javier A. González Vega	70
PART II RIGHTS
5 Nationality and EU citizenship: strong tether or slipping anchor? Hanneke van Eijken and Pauline Phoa	99
6 EU citizenship and EU anti-discrimination law: barriers to the enjoyment of the right to non-discrimination resulting from the legal anti-discrimination framework Tomasz Dudek	124
7 The civil right to free movement: the beating heart of European Union citizenship? Marie-Pierre Granger	152

8	The right to family life and obstacles arising from intra-European mobility Pilar Jiménez Blanco and Ángel Espiniella Menéndez	194
9	Pursuing Union citizenship rights: access to justice Silvia Adamo	229
10	Citizen journalism: potentials and pitfalls for European Union citizenship Orsolya Salát	253
11	The right to protection of personal data: the new posterchild of European Union citizenship? Marie-Pierre Granger and Kristina Irion	279
12	Epilogue: towards a European civil rights mo(ve)ment? Marie-Pierre Granger and Henri de Waele	303
	Index	309