

Contents

1	Law and Life	1
1.1	Different Levels of Thinking	1
1.2	Truth, Space, and Time: Law's Legend	3
1.3	The Vita Activa . Hannah Arendt	7
1.4	The Content of This Treatise	9
	References	11
2	The Rule of Law	13
2.1	Why Do We Have Law? The Rule of Law	13
2.2	What Is Law? Law as a Human Construct	17
2.3	Law and Justice. Aristotle and Rawls	20
2.4	Law and Justice. Ricoeur and Sen	22
2.5	Law, Politics, and Leadership	24
2.6	Waldron and Rawls. Arendt on Politics. Kurt Jooss	27
2.7	Law and Economics	31
2.8	Access-Based Consumption. Sustainability	33
2.9	"Bottom Up" Versus "Top Down"	37
2.10	Opinion, Rules, and Judgment. Reason and Reasoning	38
2.11	Institutional Justice and Existence-Linked Justice	42
	References	45

3	Law and Society	47
3.1	Society and the Place Occupied by an Individual	47
3.2	Law and Morality	50
3.3	Morality in Kant's Philosophy	53
3.4	Called to Freedom. Kant and Marcuse	59
3.5	Hegel	64
3.6	Connection, Cohesion, Awareness	69
3.7	Awareness, Common Space, and Common Time	72
3.8	Dignity, Respect and Responsibility. Ricoeur	75
3.9	Margalit and Rawls. A Sense of Justice. Ricoeur again	77
3.10	Taking Distance from Rawls	82
3.11	Trust and Confidence	84
3.12	Law and Rationality	85
3.13	Law and Equality	87
3.14	Law, Fundamental Rights, and Fundamental Obligations	89
3.15	Law and Legality	93
3.16	Law and War	95
3.17	American and English Law in History	97
3.18	Law and Justice in Recent English and American Literature	98
	References	101
4	Homo Iuridicus Versus Homo Societatis	103
4.1	Professionals and Citizens. The T-Shaped Lawyer	103
4.2	Continuity and Change. Ownership and Transfer	106
4.3	Legal Rights as Challenge and Obligation	108
4.4	Law as Language Practice	110
4.5	Law as Dialogue and Discussion	112
4.6	Translation as Creative Mediation	115
4.7	External, Internal, and Substantive Translation	117
4.8	Misunderstanding and Misinterpretation	121
4.9	Knowledge in a Computerized Society. Lyotard	123
4.10	Practical Knowledge, Know-How, and Discourse. Lyotard revisited	126
4.11	Law, Objectivity, and Validity	129
4.12	Legal Realism	131
	References	132

5	The Social Bond	135
5.1	Justice, Society, and the Social Bond	135
5.2	Law and Order	140
5.3	Art Versus Craft	143
5.4	Law, Truth, Reality, and Wisdom	145
5.5	Law and Wonder	147
5.6	Law and Life, Religion and Truth	150
5.7	Religion, Freedom, and Law	154
5.8	Law, Love, and Charisma	156
5.9	Law, Imagination, and Creativity	160
5.10	Law as Hope and Expectation	162
	References	165
6	Summary and Last Remarks	167
6.1	Law and Life. Why Law? A Summary	167
6.2	Law and Life. Rhythm and Reason	170
	Reference	171
	Bibliography	173
	Index	175