

Contents

List of figures	x
List of tables	xi
Preface	xiii
Part I Themes in the comparative analysis of social policy	1
1. Welfare and the state	3
Introduction	3
Options for income transfers	7
Options for services	11
Options for regulation	12
Conclusions and an introduction to the rest of the book	13
Guide to further reading	16
2. Explaining the development of social policy	17
Introduction	17
Modernisation theory	18
Pulling the threads together	24
Conclusions	36
Guide to further reading	37
3. Comparative theory	38
Introduction	38
Exploring differences between countries: broad quantitative studies	40
Exploring differences between countries: efforts to give the analysis more depth	49
Conclusions	57
Guide to further reading	58

Part II Specific areas of social policy	59
4. Income maintenance	61
Introduction	61
Types of income maintenance beneficiary	62
Towards a taxonomy of income maintenance systems	75
Benefit levels, redistribution and poverty	91
Conclusions	92
Guide to further reading	95
5. Health policy	96
Introduction	96
Alternative roles for the state in relation to health care	99
Evaluating health services: inputs	108
Evaluating health services: performance indices	112
Control of health services	116
Conclusions	124
Guide to further reading	124
6. Social care	126
Introduction	126
Care issues: from private to public	126
Social care policy and other social policies	137
Conclusions	149
Guide to further reading	149
7. Housing policy	151
Introduction	151
The state and the private market	153
Social housing	159
Owner-occupation	165
Housing and families	169
Conclusions	172
Guide to further reading	172
8. Employment policy	174
Introduction	174
Influencing the supply of labour	176
Influencing the demand for labour	180
Unemployment and social policy	182
Influencing choices by employers	196
Imposing conditions on labour market contracts	197
Conclusions	199
Guide to further reading	200

9. Education policy	202
Introduction	202
Why is the state so dominant in education?	205
How does the state involve itself in the education system?	211
The characteristics of education systems	216
Expenditure on education	220
Education outputs	221
Educational inequality	222
Conclusions	228
Guide to further reading	230
10. Environmental policy	232
Introduction	232
Identification of the issues	232
Environmental control as a collective action problem	239
Policy options and instruments	242
Conclusions	251
Guide to further reading	252
Part III Social policy, society and the state	255
11. Who gets what: social divisions of welfare	257
Introduction	257
Social class and social policy	258
Gender, social stratification and social policy	268
Race, ethnicity and social policy	274
Other social divisions	284
Geographical aspects of social divisions	286
Conclusions	287
Guide to further reading	290
12. Whither social policy	292
Introduction	292
Crisis theory	294
The growth of social policy expenditure	298
Factors affecting social policy expenditure growth	300
The impact of the rising cost of welfare in the context of the changing economy	310
Conclusions: scenarios for the way forward	312
Guide to further reading	318
Bibliography	319
Index	339