

CONTENTS

Map of the Balkans	ix
A Note on Pronunciation and Transliteration	xi
Preface and Acknowledgments	xiii
1. Islam and National Identities in the Balkans	1
1.1. Historical Overview	2
1.2. Muslims in Bulgaria	11
1.2.1 Turks in Bulgaria: From Religious Community to Ethnic Minority	11
1.2.2 Pomaks in Bulgaria: Identities in Flux	21
1.3. Islam and the Building of a Bosniak Nation	29
1.4. Islam and Albanianism	37
1.4.1 Albania: A Country of Three Religions and Two Muslim Communities	38
1.4.2 Albanian Muslims in Kosovo	42
1.4.3 Albanian Muslims in Macedonia	45
1.5. Conclusion	49
2. Muslim Transnationalism and the Reclaiming of "Balkan Islam"	51
2.1. Defining Transnational Islam	54
2.2. The Umma —Rhetoric and Reality	56
2.3. The Wars of Yugoslav Secession: Shehids and Mujahideen	60
2.4. Collision over the Interpretation of Islam	64
2.5. The Specter of Islamic Radicalism in the Balkans	68
2.6. The Role of Turkey	76
3. Islam and Women in the Balkans	82
3.1. The Balkan Context	84
3.2. The Family	86
3.3. The Veil	90
3.4. Religious Education	96
3.5. Participation in the Public Sphere	100

4. Balkan Muslims and the Discourse on a "European Islam"	103
4.1. Muslims in Western Europe: A Brief Overview	103
4.2. The Discourse on a "European Islam"	107
4.3. "Balkan Islam" as "European Islam"	116
Conclusion: Divergent Trajectories of Islam in the Balkans	130
Notes	133
Selected Bibliography	181
Index	191

CONTENTS

Map of the Balkans	ix
A Note on Pronunciation and Transliteration	xi
Preface and Acknowledgments	xiii
1. Islam and National Identities in the Balkans	1
1.1. Historical Overview	2
1.2. Muslims in Bulgaria	11
1.2.1. Turks in Bulgaria: From Religious Community to Ethnic Minority	11
1.2.2. Pomaks in Bulgaria: Identities in Flux	21
1.3. Islam and the Building of a Bosniak Nation	29
1.4. Islam and Albanianism	37
1.4.1. Albania: A Country of Three Religions and Two Muslim Communities	38
1.4.2. Albanian Muslims in Kosovo	42
1.4.3. Albanian Muslims in Macedonia	42
1.5. Conclusion	49
2. Muslim Transnationalism and the Reclaiming of "Balkan Islam"	51
2.1. Defining Transnational Islam	54
2.2. The Ummah—Rhetoric and Reality	55
2.3. The Wars of Yugoslav Secession: Shirkah and Mujahideen	60
2.4. Collision over the Interpretation of Islam	64
2.5. The Specter of Islamic Radicalism in the Balkans	68
2.6. The Role of Turkey	76
3. Islam and Women in the Balkans	82
3.1. The Balkan Context	84
3.2. The Family	88
3.3. The Veil	90
3.4. Religious Education	96
3.5. Participation in the Public Sphere	100