

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	VII
INTRODUCTION: Auto-ethnographies of Academic Practices, Donna J. Young and Anne Meneley	I
I: INITIATIONS	23
1. Loyalty and Treachery in the Kalahari, Renée Sylvain	25
2. Doctors With Borders, Lesley Gotlib	39
3. Who Wears the Trousers in Vanuatu?, Maggie Cummings	51
II: COLLABORATIONS	65
4. Gatekeeper or Helpful Counsel? Practices and Perceptions in Academic Peer Review, Stephen Bocking	67
5. Teaching and Learning Across Borders, Julia Harrison and Anne Meneley	80
6. Ethnography's Edge in Development, Pauline Gardiner Barber ..	94
III: INTERVENTIONS	111
7. Anthropologist and Accomplice in Botswana, Jacqueline Solway	113
8. The Torso in the Thames: Imagining Darkest Africa in the United Kingdom, Todd Sanders	126
9. White Devil as Expert Witness, Ted Swedenburg	143
IV: DISCIPLINING THE ACADEMY	157
10. Team Diversity: An Ethnography of Institutional Values, Bonnie Urciuoli	159
11. Censorship, Surveillance, and Middle East Studies in the Contemporary United States, David A. McMurray	173
V: DEPARTURES	187
12. The Auto-ethnography That Can Never Be and the Activist's Ethnography That Might Be, David Graeber	189
13. Writing Against the Native Point of View, Donna J. Young	203
14. An Anthropologist Undone, Camilla Gibb	216

Afterword: Our Subjects/Ourselves: A View from the Back Seat, Michael Lambek	229
List of Contributors	241
Index	244
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
INTRODUCTION: Auto-ethnographies of Academic Practices Donna J. Young and Anne Menckley
II: INITIATIONS
1. Loyalty and Teacher in the Kalarbari, Kerala System Ranjana Khanna	25
2. Doctors With Borders: Fieldwork in the Borderlands Donna J. Young	31
3. Whose Words? The Process in Vancouver, British Columbia Donna J. Young	31
III: COLLABORATIONS
4. Gendered or Rhetorical? Teachers and Researchers in Academic Peer Review, Stephen Becking	39
5. Teaching and Learning Across Borders John Harriss and Anne Menckley	40
6. Ethnography's Edge in Development, Pauline Gardner, Robert UK	41
III: INTERVENTIONS
7. Anthropologist and Accomplice in Botswana, Jackeline Johnson	43
8. The Tono in the Tamas: Imagining Darker Africa in the United Kingdom, Tonia Gonsky	43
9. White Devil as Expert Witness, Ted Swedenburg Ted Swedenburg	43
IV: DISCIPLINING THE ACADEMY
10. Team Diversity: An Ethnography of Institutional Values Bonnie Urciuoli	43
11. Censorship, Surveillance, and Middle East Studies in the Contemporary United States, David J. Mervin	43
V: DEPARTURES
12. The Auto-ethnography That Can Never Be and the Activist's Ethnography That Might Be, David Gunkel	43
13. Writing Against the Native Point of View, Donna J. Young	203
14. An Anthropologist Undone, Camille Gibb	210