

Contents

Acknowledgements /9

Preface /11

- I. Permanent Interaction: Reflections on the Paintings and Designs of Jaroslav Malina (1937–2016) /17
Joseph E. Brandesky
- II. Jaroslav Malina: A Scenographer of Action, Chaos, and Deep Inner Order. An Attempt at a Characterization of Methods /55
Vlasta Koubská
- III. Reconstructing a Treacherous Place. Jaroslav Malina's Scenography for A Midsummer Night's Dream /95
Jules Deering
- IV. Commentary on Transcripts of Jaroslav Malina Interviews /119
Dennis Christilles
- V. Jaroslav Malina Interviewed by Joseph Brandesky in 2007 and 2010. Transcripts /129
Dennis Christilles
- VI. Malina and Svoboda. A Discreet Comparison of Czech Scenographers /215
Věra Velemanová
- VII. Jaroslav Malina and Opera. Czech Scenography from Resistance to Repression to Freedom for Expression /231
Nena Couch
- VIII. "There probably is some higher power." Philosophical Undercurrents in the Work of Jaroslav Malina /251
Pavel Drábek

List of Images /282

Selected Bibliography /287