

CONTENTS

10	Foreword
12	Preface and Acknowledgments
15	Lenders to the Exhibition
16	Map of Important Sites in China
17	Map of Japan in the Muromachi Period
18	Chronology of Japanese and Chinese Historical Periods
19	Editor's Notes
21	Cultural Life in the Muromachi Period
39	The Reception of Chinese Painting in Medieval Japan
47	Catalogue
49	Zen-inspired Ink Painting of the Early Period
59	Ink Painting as a Focus for Literary Gatherings
81	Followers in the Shūbun Tradition
89	The Daitokuji Lineage
97	Sesshū Tōyō (1420-1506)
127	Sesshū's Followers
173	Professional Painters and the Spread of Ink Painting to the Provinces
195	Sesson Shūkei (ca.1504–ca.1589)
211	Appendix of Artists' Seals and Signatures
220	Selected Bibliography of Works in English
221	Index