

CONTENTS

I. GETTING STARTED

How to Read This Book 3

- 1 Introduction to How to Write a BA Thesis, Second Edition 9
- 2 Useful Nuts and Bolts 13
- 3 More Nuts and Bolts 22

II. FRAMING YOUR TOPIC

- 4 Taking Effective Notes and Avoiding Plagiarism 41
- 5 How to Build a Reading List 70
- 6 Refining Your Topic, Writing a Proposal, and Beginning Research 76

III. CONDUCTING YOUR RESEARCH

- 7 What Is Good Thesis Research? 101
- 8 Using Case Studies Effectively 113
- 9 Every Thesis Should Have a Thesis 127

IV. WRITING YOUR BEST

- 10 Planning and Prewriting: How Do They Help Your Thesis? 139
- 11 Writing Your Best 159
- 12 Effective Openings, Smooth Transitions, and Strong Closings 175
- 13 Good Editing Makes Good Writing 193
- 14 Presenting Information Visually 209
- 15 Presenting Your Work to Others 245

V. WORKING YOUR BEST

- 16 Working Efficiently 251
- 17 Overcoming Problems 263
- 18 What to Do If You Get Stuck 283

VI. SCHEDULING AND COMPLETING YOUR THESIS

- 19 Thesis Schedule 287
- 20 Tips and Reminders 295
- 21 Frequently Asked Questions 303
- 22 What to Do When You're All Done 314

VII. DEALING WITH SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

- 23 Thesis Defense and Second Readers: Questions and Answers 323
- 24 A One-Semester Thesis 326

VIII. CITING YOUR SOURCES AND GETTING MORE ADVICE

- Appendix 1: Best Sources for More Help 333
- Appendix 2: Footnotes 101 339
- Appendix 3: Advice for New Faculty Advisers 435

Acknowledgments 439

Index 441