

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements | vii

Introduction: Becoming symbolic: from Charlie Hebdo to
'Charlie Hebdo' 1
Gavan Titley

PART I: THE CONTESTED REPUBLIC

- 1 Charlie Hebdo, Republican secularism and Islamophobia. 31
Aurélien Mondon and Aaron Winter
- 2 The meaning of 'Charlie': the debate on the troubled French identity 46
Philippe Marlière
- 3 After the drama: the institutionalisation of gossiping about
Muslims 63
Valérie Amiraux and Arber Fetiu
- 4 A double-bind situation? The depoliticisation of violence and the politics of compensation 79
Abdellali Hajjat

PART II: THE LONG 'WAR ON TERROR'

- 5 The whiteness of innocence: Charlie Hebdo and the metaphysics of anti-terrorism in Europe 97
Nicholas De Genova
- 6 The visible hand of the state 114
Gholam Khiabany
- 7 Symbolic politics with brutally real effects: when 'nobodies'
make history. 129
Markha Valenta
- 8 Extremism, theirs and ours: Britain's 'generational struggle'. . . . 146
Arun Kundnani

PART III: MEDIA EVENTS AND MEDIA DYNAMICS

- 9 From Jyllands-Posten to Charlie Hebdo: domesticating the Mohammed cartoons. 165
Carolina Sanchez Boe
- 10 #JeSuisCharlie, #JeNeSuisPasCharlie and ad hoc publics 180
Simon Dawes
- 11 Mediated narratives as competing histories of the present 192
Annabelle Sreberny

PART IV: THE POLITICS OF FREE SPEECH

- 12 Media power and the framing of the Charlie Hebdo attacks 209
Des Freedman
- 13 We hate to quote Stanley Fish, but: "There's no such thing as free speech, and it's a good thing, too." Or is it? 223
Bill Grantham and Toby Miller
- 14 Jouissance and submission: 'free speech', colonial diagnostics and psychoanalytic responses to Charlie Hebdo. 239
Anne Mulhall

PART V: RACISM AND ANTI-RACISM IN POST-RACIAL TIMES

- 15 Not afraid 259
Ghassan Hage
- 16 'Je Suis Juif': Charlie Hebdo and the remaking of antisemitism. 262
Alana Lentin
- 17 Race, caste and gender in France. 278
Christine Delphy
- 18 The ideology of the Holy Republic as part of the colonial counter-revolution 291
Selim Nadi

About the contributors | 304

Index | 308