

Contents

Part I The Theoretical Context

1. Introduction	3
Public and Official Discourses on Grooming	5
Contextualizing the Debates	9
Towards a New Definition of ‘Grooming’	11
Background to the Primary Research	13
Recurrent Themes	15
Structure of the Book	17
2. The Nature and Extent of Sexual Grooming	20
Lack of Settled Meaning	21
An Abuse of Trust	26
Typologies of Grooming	28
The Extent of Grooming	32
Conclusion	49
3. Legislative and Policy Frameworks on Sex Offender Risk Management	51
Risk, Regulation, and Preventive Governance	52
An Overview of Legal Systems and Traditions	55
Explaining the Convergence of Penal Policies on Sex Offending	60
Key Developments in Sex Offender Risk Management	72
Conclusion	80

Part II Grooming Processes and Preventive Policies and Procedures

4. The Grooming of Children, Families, and Communities	85
Locating Grooming in the Cycle of Sexual Offending	86

xiv Contents

Self-grooming	90
Child Grooming	92
Familial and Societal Grooming	119
Primary Research: The Grooming Process	124
Conclusion	145
5. 'Institutional Grooming' and Abuse	147
Public Inquiries and Official Reviews	148
Sexual Offending in the Institutional Context	159
Institutional Grooming and Child Sexual Exploitation within Sport	168
Institutional Grooming within the Catholic Church	170
Primary Research: Institutional Grooming and Abuse	175
Conclusion	195
6. Legislative and Policy Responses to Grooming	198
Pre-employment Vetting and Barring Schemes in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland	199
Meeting a Child Following Sexual Grooming etc/Certain Preliminary Contact/for the Purpose of Sexual Exploitation	209
Transnational Mechanisms and Protocols	223
Primary Research: Legislative and Policy Responses to Grooming	227
Conclusion	249
 Part III Future Policy Responses to Child Sexual Abuse
7. The Way Ahead: Prevention and Protection	253
Public Health Approaches: Addressing Sex Offender Risk	254
Primary and Secondary Levels of Prevention	257
Conclusion	278
8. Conclusion	280
Deconstructing Grooming and its Role in Sexual Offending against Children	282
Implications for Risks-Based Approaches: The Rehabilitation of 'Risk'	285
Challenges for Public Health Approaches	290

Appendix 1: Research Methodology	297
Appendix 2: Interview Schedule	299
Bibliography	305
Index	357