

Contents

Preface	vii
1 Working the Land in Preindustrial Europe and America	1
2 Men and Women Working in Shops and Homes before Industrialization	18
3 Origins of Industrialization	39
4 The Birth of the Factory	54
5 Iron, Steam, and Rails	69
6 Machines and Their Mass Production	92
7 Machines on the Farm and in the Forest, 1800–1950	105
8 Americans Confront a Mechanical World, 1780–1900	122
9 The Second Industrial Revolution	137
10 Technology and the Modern Corporation	157
11 Technology and War, 1770–1918	174
12 The Impact of Technology on Women’s Work	194
13 The New Factory	210
14 Innovation and the Great Depression, 1918–1940	226

vi	Contents
15	The Automobile and Its Culture	238
16	Mechanizing Sight and Sound	257
17	Electronic Media in the Home	275
18	Airplanes and Atoms in Peace and War	295
19	The Postwar Advance of Technology	317
20	Our Digital Age	333
21	Modern Americans in a Technological World	354
	Index	369