

Contents

---

Introduction

- Towards a 'Europeanized' European History? 1
Caner Tekin and Stefan Berger

Chapter 1

- Exhibiting Post-national Identity: The House of European History 21
Daniel Rosenberg

Chapter 2

- The European Union and the Historiography of European Integration: Dangerous Liaisons? 37
Oriane Calligaro

Chapter 3

- Representations of National Cultures vis-à-vis the 'European' at the European Union National Institutes for Culture 55
Claudia Schneider

Chapter 4

- Europe – A Concept in its Own Right or an Intermediate State between National Traditions and Global Interrelatedness? 64
Representations of Europe in Curricula, Textbooks and Surveys
Falk Pingel

Chapter 5

- The Past in English Euroscepticism 88
Ben Wellings and Chris Gifford

Chapter 6

(Trans)national Memories of the Common Past in the Post-Yugoslav Space

106

Jelena Đureinović

Chapter 7

Disturbing Memories: Coming to Terms with the Stalinist History of Europe

122

Claudia Weber

Chapter 8

'Glorious, Accursed Europe': A Fictional Historian, Transcultural Holocaust Memory and the Quest for a European Identity

136

Judith Müller

Chapter 9

Who Lost Turkey? The Consequences of Writing an Exclusionary European History

152

Paul T. Levin

Chapter 10

Conceptualizations of Turkey's Past in the European Parliament

174

Caner Tekin

Conclusion

European and National Ways of Politicizing European History

193

Stefan Berger and Caner Tekin

Index

201