

CONTENTS

Preface ix
Acknowledgments xv
About the Authors xvii

PART ONE The Context of School Counseling

1. The Context of Professional School Counseling: The Need for Theory 3
Colette T. Dollarhide and Matthew E. Lemberger-Truelove

2. General History and Conceptual Frameworks of School Counseling 13
Chris Slaten, Anya Woronzoff Verriden, and Thomas W. Baskin

3. Organizational, Institutional, and Political Challenges and Responsibilities in Professional School Counseling 25
Trish Hatch

PART TWO Classical Theories of School Counseling

4. Person-Centered School Counseling 49
Kimberly M. Jayne and Hayley L. Stulmaker

5. Adlerian School Counseling 75
Erika R. N. Cameron, Kara P. Ieva, and Brianne L. France

6. Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy in the Schools 101
Melissa Mariani and Brett Zyromski

7. Counseling for Results: Reality Therapy in Action 127
Robert E. Wubbolding

8. School Counseling from an Existential Perspective 155
Brian Hutchison and Thomas A. Chávez

9. Solution-Focused School Counseling 181

John J. Murphy

PART THREE School Counseling Metatheories

10. Strengths-Based School Counseling 2.0 211

Patrick Akos, Clare Merlin-Knoblich, and Kevin Duquette

11. Ecological School Counseling 241

H. George McMahon and E. C. M. Mason

12. An Advocating Student-within-Environment Approach to School Counseling 266

Matthew E. Lemberger-Truelove and Hannah Bowers

PART FOUR Supervising School Counselors

13. The Discrimination Model for School Counseling Supervision 297

Melissa Luke and Kristopher M. Goodrich

Index 319