

CONTENTS

Preface		vii
Chapter 1	Towards a Theoretical Understanding of Hospitality Conrad Lashley	1
Chapter 2	One Cheer for Marxism: Hospitality as a Bourgeois Phenomenon Roy C. Wood	25
Chapter 3	Hostility and Hospitality: Connecting Brexit, Grenfell, and Windrush Tom Selwyn	51
Chapter 4	Inhospitable Hospitality? George Ritzer	73
Chapter 5	Experiencing, Expressing and Evoking Emotions in Hospitality and Tourism Prokopis A. Christou	91
Chapter 6	A Paradigm Shift from “Emotional Labor” to “Genuine Emotional Display” in the Workplace Aspasia Simillidou and Prokopis A. Christou	117

Chapter 7	Working in Hospitality: Flexible Working and the Gig Economy Bill Rowson	135
Chapter 8	Pleasure and Hospitality in New Zealand: The Roles of Alcohol, Sex, and Service Jill Poulston	157
Chapter 9	The Diminishing Role of the General Manager from a Middle Managers' Perspective; Some Generic Drivers Tjeerd Zandberg	183
Chapter 10	Roboptimism or Pessimism: HR Managers Face a Challenge Verena Hopf, Laura Velten and Bill Rowson	203
Chapter 11	Ladies and Gentlemen Serving Ladies and Gentlemen Klaes Eringa	229
Chapter 12	Wine Tourism and Hospitality: Opportunities and Challenges for Future Development Radu Mihailescu	247
About the Editors		261
Index		263