

Contents

Figures, Tables and Boxes	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Introduction	1
1.1 The importance of inequality	1
1.2 What do we mean by inequality?	2
1.3 Equality and inequality: concepts and definitions	7
1.4 Inequalities across groups	14
1.5 Coverage and key themes	19
Further reading	28
Part I	29
2 Class	31
2.1 Concepts, definitions, measurement	34
2.2 The National Statistics Socio-economic Classification (NS-SeC) and the UK class distribution	39
2.3 Meritocracy and social mobility	45
Further reading	57
3 Gender	58
3.1 Definitions, concepts and coverage	59
3.2 Women and labour market inequality	62
3.3 Gender and domestic work: women's double burden?	72
3.4 Explaining the gendered patterns of paid and unpaid work: socialization and preferences	75
3.5 Inequalities between women	82
Further reading	86
4 Ethnicity	87
4.1 Ethnicity: definitions and measures	89
4.2 Ethnic groups in the UK: inequality and diversity	101
4.3 Explaining ethnic inequalities	111
Further reading	117
5 International Migration	118
5.1 Defining migrants	121
5.2 Migrant diversity and inequalities	126
5.3 Explaining migrant inequality	135
Further reading	140

6 Disability	141
6.1 Defining disability	144
6.2 Disability and inequalities	153
Further reading	163
Part II	165
7 Age and the Life Course	167
7.1 Inequalities and the life course	169
Further reading	182
8 Education	183
8.1 Educational attainment over time – and access to educational qualifications across different social origins	185
8.2 The role of educational institutions and their relationship to family resources and dominant cultures	197
8.3 Contemporary educational inequalities: gender and ethnicity	201
Further reading	209
9 Income, Wealth and Poverty	210
9.1 Income inequality	213
9.2 Wealth	219
9.3 Poverty	222
Further reading	235
10 Health	237
10.1 Drivers of inequalities in health	240
10.2 Health inequalities internationally and intra-nationally	248
10.3 Inequalities in health across social groups	255
Further reading	261
11 Neighbourhood and Housing	262
11.1 Neighbourhood deprivation and neighbourhood effects	264
11.2 Housing	276
Further reading	283
12 Conclusions: Inequality, Intersectionality and Diversity	284
12.1 A framework for understanding inequalities and stratification	285
12.2 Key themes	289
12.3 Looking forward	290
References	293
Index	340