

Contents

Acknowledgments	vi
Introduction: Understanding Emotions in Mediated Public Life	i
1 Taking Emotion Seriously: A Brief History of Thought	20
2 Emotions are Everywhere: The Strategic Ritual of Emotionality in Journalism	37
3 Authenticity, Compassion and Personalized Storytelling	66
4 Towards a Typology of Mediated Anger	90
5 Shifting Emotional Regimes: Donald Trump's Angry Populism	110
6 The Politics of Love: Political Fandom and Social Change	129
7 The Emotional Architecture of Social Media	147
Conclusion: Nine Propositions about Emotions, Media and Politics	166
Notes	175
References	178
Index	205