

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
Notes on contributors	xi
Acknowledgements	xiv
Introduction	1
EMILIE VAN HAUTE
PART I
Case studies	13
1 The Greens in Austria and Switzerland: Two successful opposition parties	15
MARTIN DOLEZAL
2 The Greens in Belgium's federal landscape: Divergent fates	42
MARIE-CATHERINE WAVREILLE AND JEAN-BENOIT PILET
3 Central and Eastern European Green parties: Rise, fall and revival?	59
E. GENE FRANKLAND
4 From the Greens to Europe Ecology – The Greens: Renaissance or more of the same?	92
BRUNO VILLALBA
5 The Green Party in Germany	112
SEBASTIAN BUKOW
6 GroenLinks in the Netherlands: No longer a protest party, not yet a coalition partner	140
GERRIT VOERMAN AND PAUL LUCARDIE

7 Green parties in Finland and Sweden: Successful cases of the North?	158
NIKLAS BOLIN
8 Green parties in Southern Europe (Italy, Spain, Portugal, and Greece)	177
ROBERTO BIORCIO
9 Greens in the United Kingdom and Ireland: Weak but persistent	196
LYNN BENNIE
10 The Greens in the European Parliament: Evolution and cohesion	217
NATHALIE BRACK AND CAMILLE KELBEL
PART II
Comparative perspective on Green parties in Europe	239
11 Green parties and elections	241
CAROLINE CLOSE AND PASCAL DELWIT
12 Green parties in government	265
CONOR LITTLE
13 Green party ideology today: Divergences and continuities in Germany, France and Britain	280
GARETH PRICE-THOMAS
14 Green party organisations: The difficult path from amateur-activist to professional-electoral logics	298
BENOÎT RIHOUX
Conclusion: Green parties in Europe: Which family ties?	315
EMILIE VAN HAUTE
Index	325