

Contents

Preface ix

1. Why Can't a Mother Be More Like a Businessman? 1
2. From Rods to Reasoning: The Historical Construction of Intensive Mothering 19
3. "What Every Baby Knows": Contemporary Advice on Appropriate Child Rearing 51
4. Sorting the Mail: The Social Bases of Variations in Mothering 71
5. Intensive Mothering: Women's Work on Behalf of the Sacred Child 97
6. The Mommy Wars: Ambivalence, Ideological Work, and the Cultural Contradictions of Motherhood 131
7. Love, Self-Interest, Power, and Opposition: Untangling the Roots of Intensive Mothering 152

Appendix A: Interview Questions 179

Appendix B: Survey Questionnaire 182

viii Contents

Notes 195

Bibliography 227

Index 245

Contents

Preface ix

1. Why Can't a Mother Be More Like a Businessman? 1

2. From Rats to Reasoning: The Historical Construction of

Intensive Mothering 13

3. "What Every Baby Knows": Contemporary Advice on

Appropriate Child Rearing 21

4. Sorting the Mail: The Social Bases of Variations in Mothering 31

5. Intensive Mothering: Women's Work on Behalf of the

Sacred Child 37

6. The Mommy Wars: Ambivalence, Ideological Work, and the Cultural

Constitutions of Motherhood 131

7. Love, Self-Interest, Power, and Opposition: Unraveling the Roots of

Intensive Mothering 151

Appendix A: Interview Questions 159

Appendix B: Survey Questionnaire 181